NORFOLK COLLEGIATE SCHOOL

BOOK OF DREAMS

Nov. 18, 1979

Dear Gary,

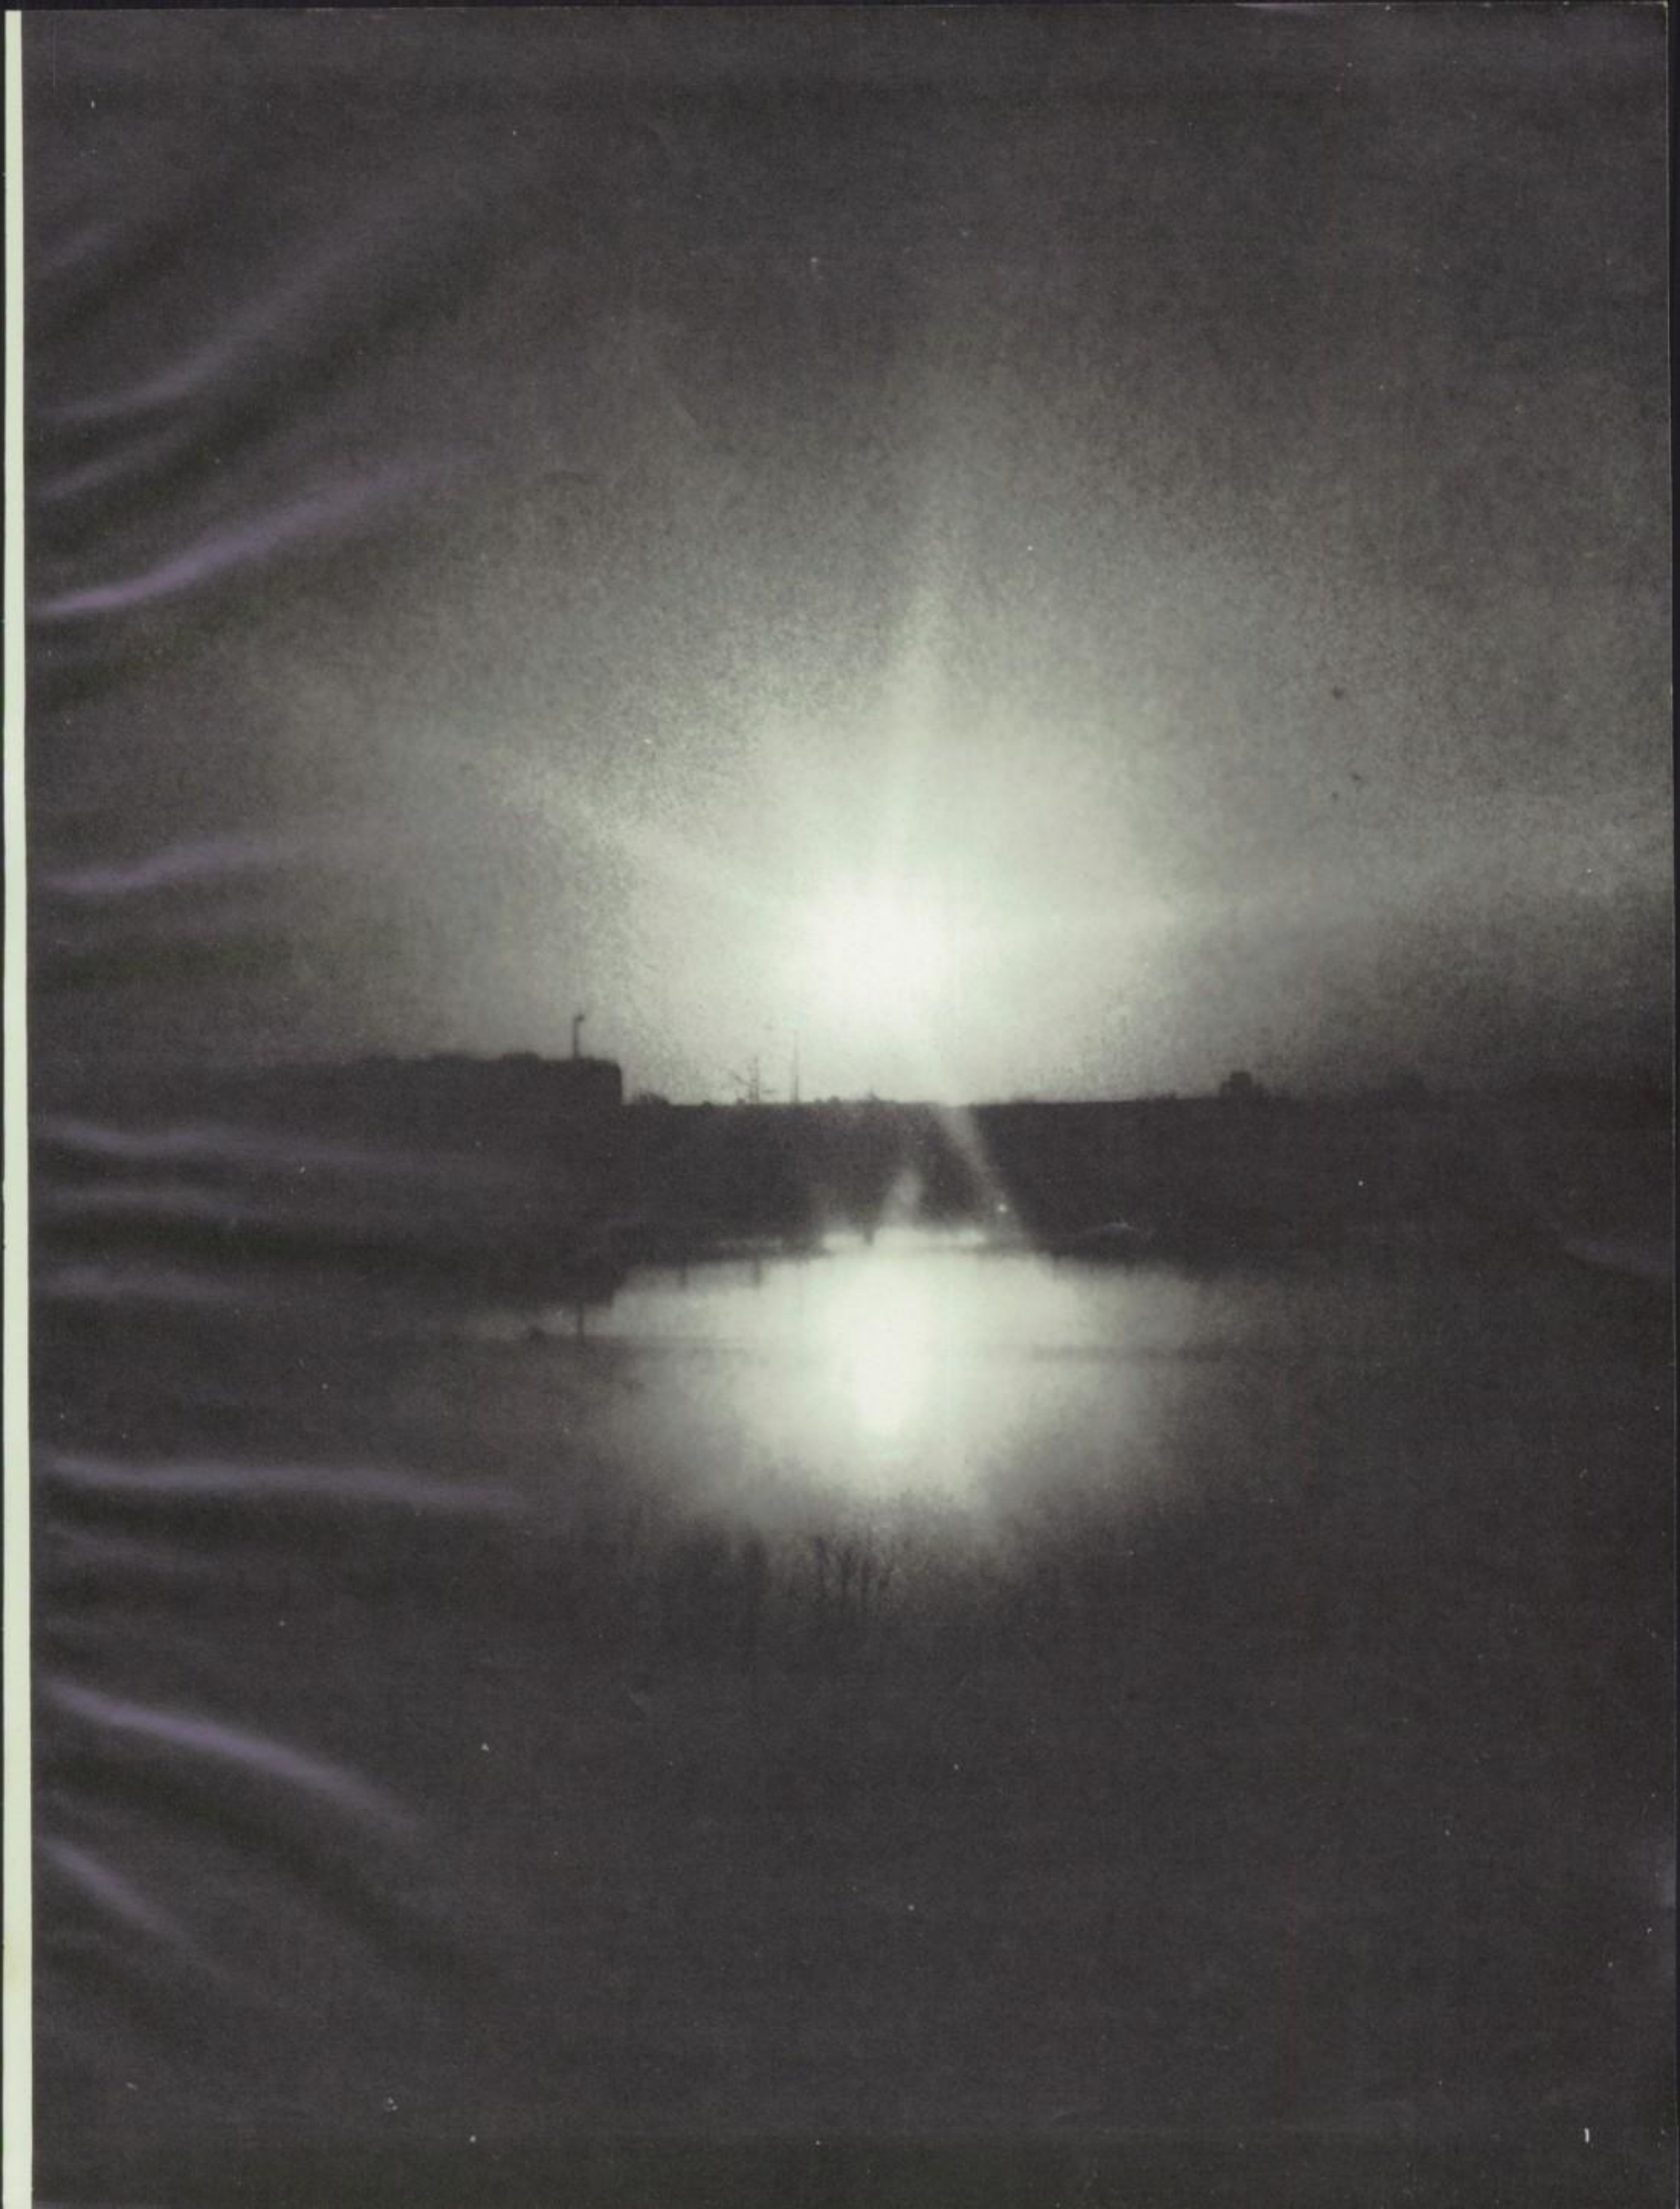

Why didn't you get all the snobs at our school to sign your yearbook & tell you what a great guy you are! They'll tell you that you're so funny, they like your new nose, & you have great legs!

Boy we sure had a great year! We got to be pretty good friends by our long talks at lunchtime - remember? Also remember the way you called me Betty?! Wow! Those were the days weren't they? Gosh I hope you're in more of my classes next year & maybe I'll see you in the summer!

Good Luck & Always!

Love,

Belen

JET AIRLINER

"Leavin' home, out on the road
 I've been down before
 Ridin' along in this big ol' jet plane
 I've been thinkin' about my home
 But my love light seems so far away an I feel like it's all been done
 Somebody's tryin' to make me stay you know I've got to be movin' on Big ol' jet airliner
 don't carry me too far away
 Big ol' jet airliner
 cause it's here that I've got to stay
 Goodby to all my friends at home
 Goodby to people I've trusted
 I've got to go out and make my way
 I might get rich you know I might get busted
 but my heart keeps calling me backwards
 as I get on the 707
 Ridin' high I got tears in my eyes . . .
 Touchin' down in New England town feel the heat comin' down
 I've got to keep on keepin on you know the big wheel keeps on spinnin' around
 But I'm goin' with some hesitation
 you know that I can surely see . . .
 Oh Oh big ol' jet airliner
 don't carry me too far away big ol' jet airliner cause it's here that I've got to stay
 Oh Oh big ol' jet airliner
 carry me to my home
 Oh Oh big ol' jet airliner cause it's there that I belong.

Franklin H. finally made it!

The master at work.

Walter M. has done it again

Sadler's way to get Mark W. to practice.

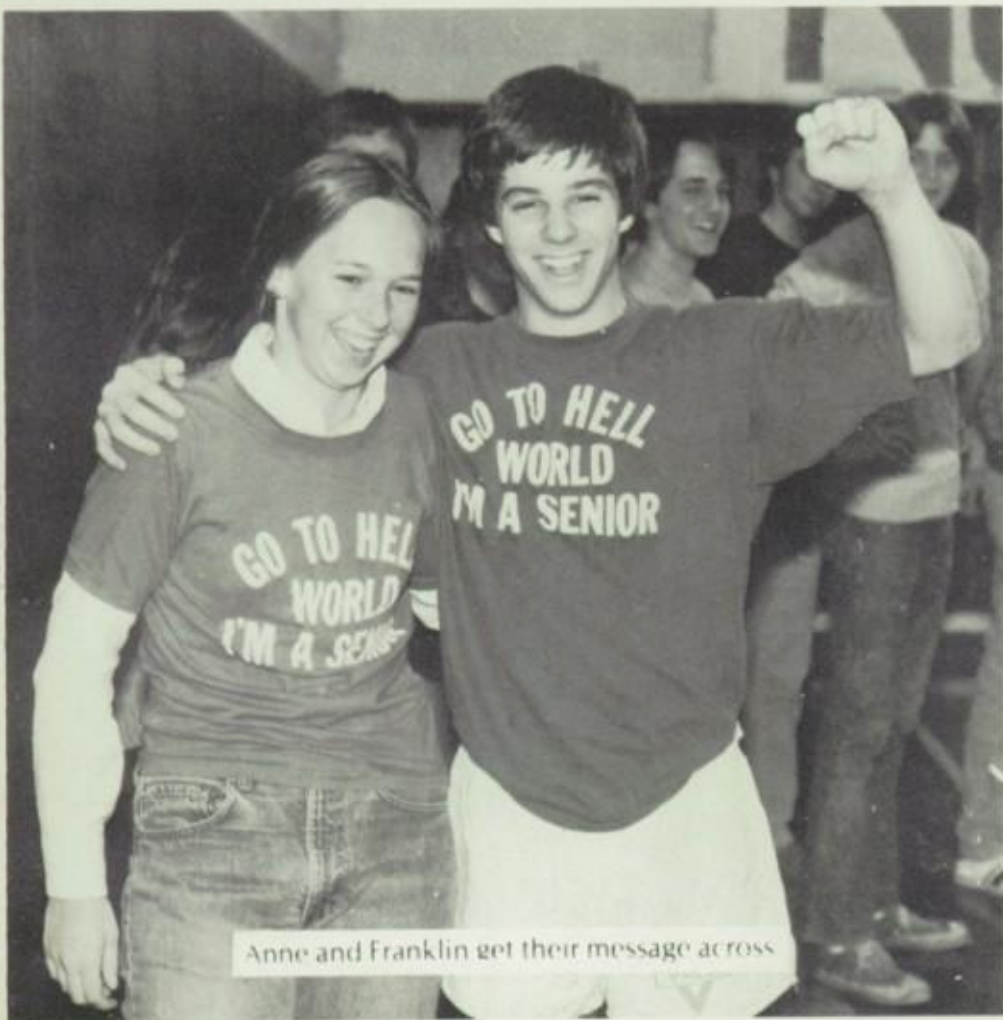

It's sixth bell in the Senior parking lot.

T. finally gives it to Franklin.

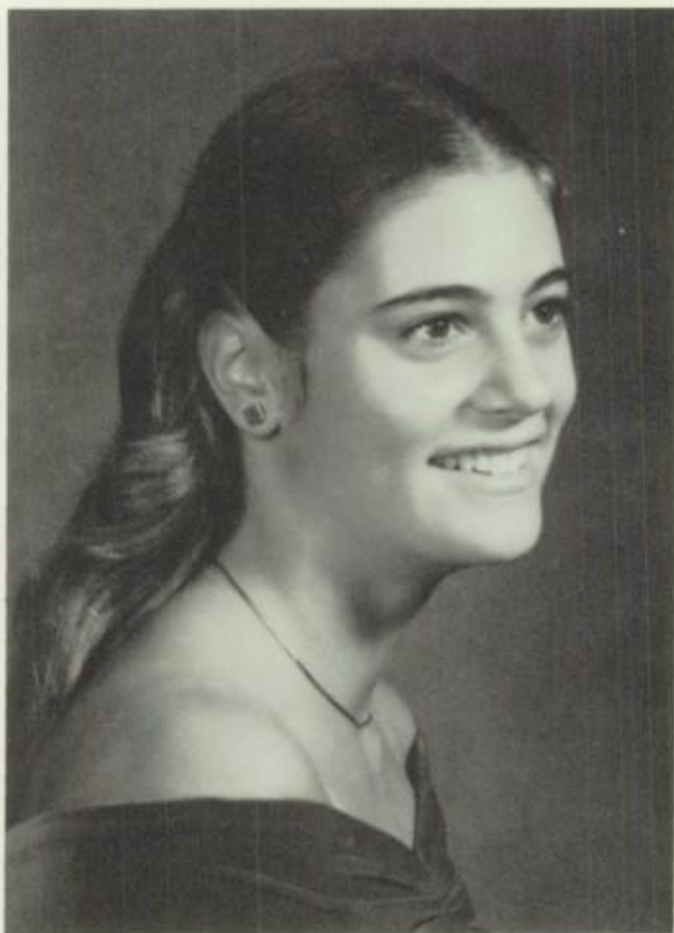

A very "popular" picture.

Anne and Franklin get their message across

Missy pauses as the school burns down

Lisa Marianne Acra

Don't follow where the path may lead. Go, instead, where there is no path and leave a trail.

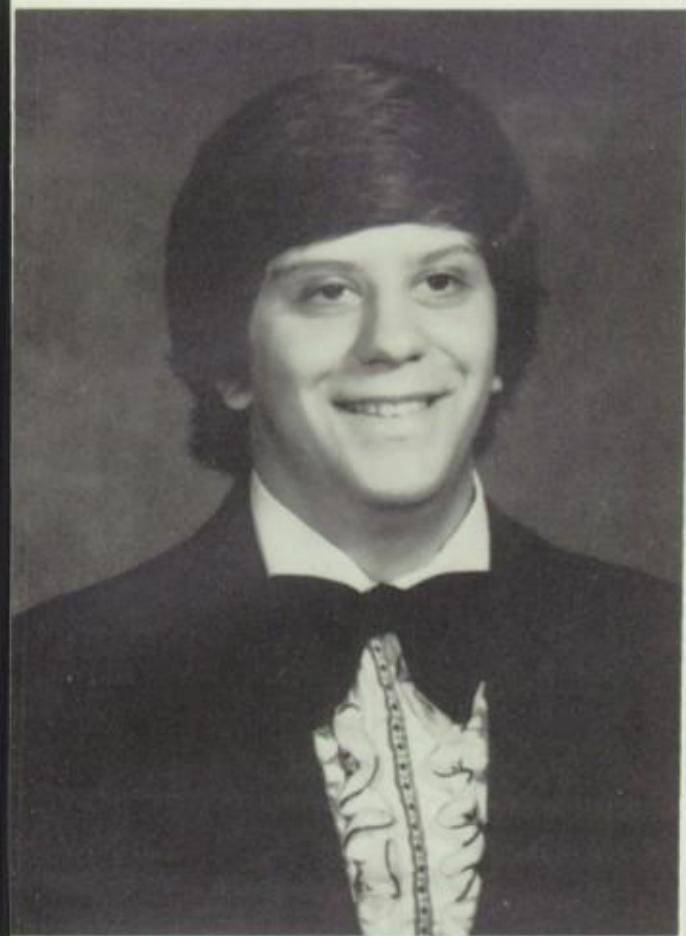

There are three things that remain — faith, hope, and love — and the greatest of these is love.

I Corinthians 13

Mary M. Alberti

Mark A Ansell

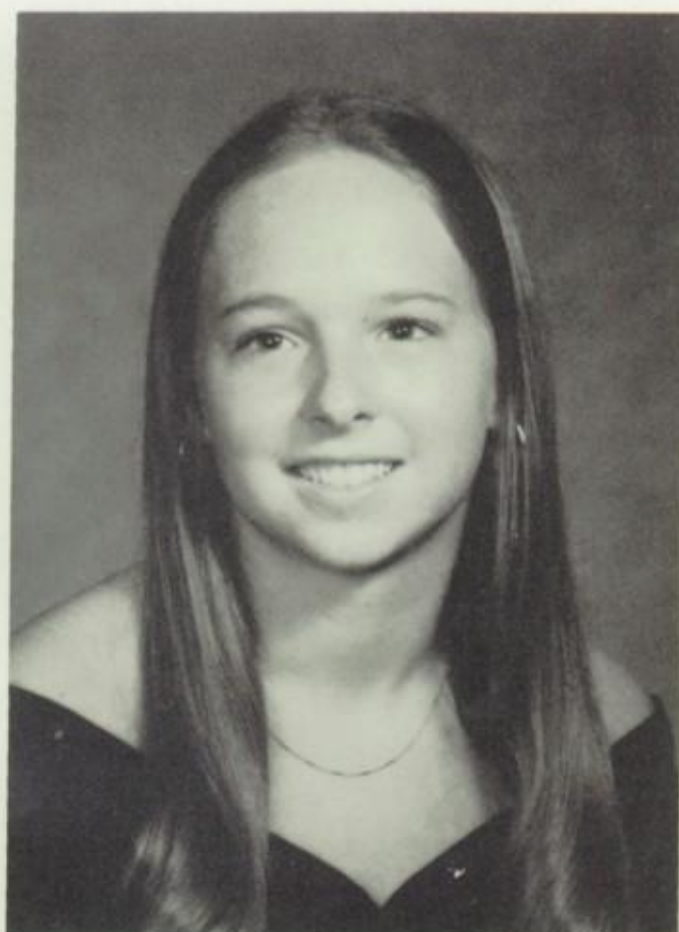

Winners never know the worth of losing 'til the prize has slipped right through their hands. Love will take a heart of its own choosing and break it if you try to understand.

Dan Fogelberg

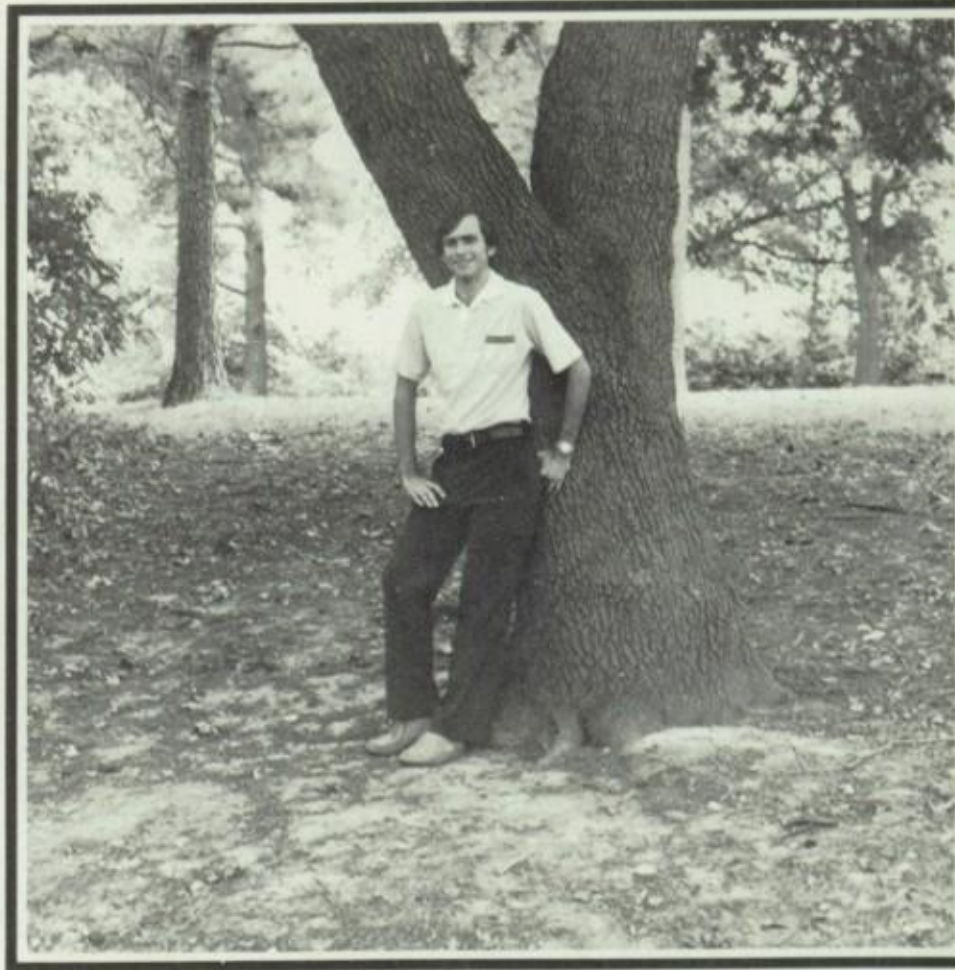

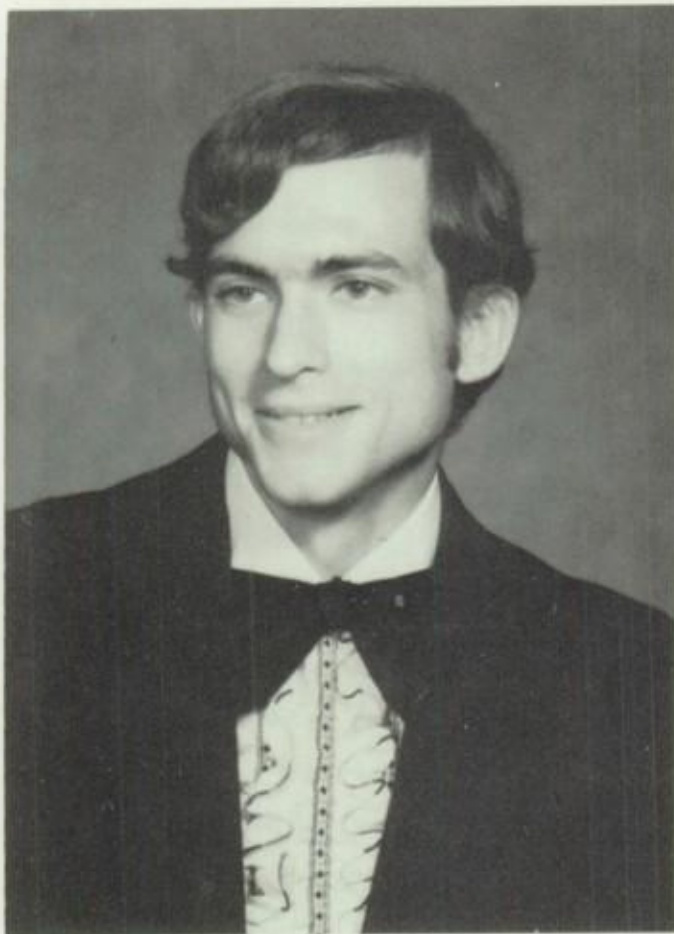

Oh but yesterdays are over my shoulder. So I can't look back for too long. There's just too much to see waiting in front of me. I don't think that I can go wrong.

Jimmy Buffet

Ann R. Avery

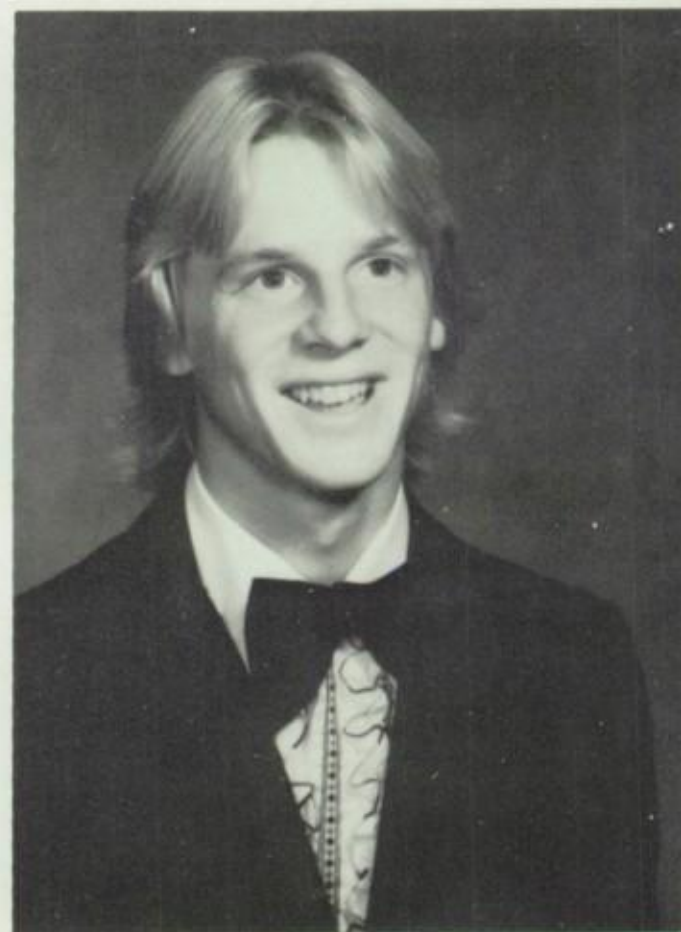

Nothing great was ever achieved without enthusiasm.

Harry Webb Baylon

Forget what life used to be. You are what you choose to be.

Last Will

I, LISA ACRA, leave Dana O., all the stars she could ever earn; to Georgia, "the mosquito" who never stopped buzzing and that endless sixth bell Amer. history class; to Mary A., the efforts of raising our class ranks and a "nanu nanu handshake"; to Brad, 4 years of Spanish and a great friendship; to R.D., our annual dates to Prom (a great time); to Caprice, the constant aroma of "you-know-who"; to Julie, "its vowels not . . ."; and finally to Cathy Kesler, all our long talks, tears, moments of meanness, the dream that may never come true, the "accidents"; MARILYN, "Mutt and Jeff", "ACE", softball, and last a friendship that I will always remember.

I, MARY ALBERTI, leave with a million memories and thanks for all the support and encouragement and a special "THANKS" to those special friends I cried and laughed with. To Amy, a long friendship, "I gotta tell ya something", and a hotline to Dear Abbey. To Lucy, a free dinner at Benningan's with a _____ and Sprite. To Lisa, "We tried", the highest class rank at Harvard and a "nanu nanu handshake". To Brad, a pair of yellow alligator socks. To every member of the Senior Class, I leave a Portsmouth: All American City Button. To the "Portsmouth Trio", I leave a car, a license, and a parking space. To G.S., a big thank-you for getting me out of a "tight squeeze". To Sue, I leave a calculator complete with two functions and all the pizzas and tacos you can eat in one complete weekend in a tree. To Linda, "something". To D.H., an award-winning play. To Shari and Laurie, an obscene phone call, some guys and a disco. To Esiele, whom I promise to call, I leave a map. With Caprice I share a secret and the hope that we get to do it again someday. To Ken Mayo, because he deserves it, I leave a stalled car in the tunnel — ON the Portsmouth side. To Mrs. Buxton, I leave peace (for a change!) and a summary of Don Juan in twenty words or less. To Iz, I leave, seven years of memories, jokes, and cramming sessions. What more can I say! Finally, to mis amigos I leave a warm night in a Spanish park . . .

I, MARK ANSELL, leave to Wendy W. and Beth F. my cousin Bernie's phone #. To Jeff G., I leave MR. JACK DANIELS and a quiet ride through Williamsburg at 3:00 AM in the morning, plus a meeting with Barry Parhill, and thanks for the h--- on times. To Mrs. Miller, my English talents. To Pudge, I leave the W&M football team when we beat Virginia Tech next year, also the great J.V. years and the address to the Boston Red Sox baseball team. To Mr. Swearingen, thanks for starting me in golf, and I leave you a Boston Red Sox's poster and a three cut up Pro Staff. To Carter, I leave my golf swing and a trip back from Lake Wright. To Robert, new tires. To R.D., a free trip to South Norfolk to roll a house, plus a ticket to a W&M football game. To Harry, a farm. To Doug Smith, a book on how to act like an animal. To Walter, I leave a book on how to improve your looks, and my four wood. To Wood, the State of North Carolina. To Brooks, a Gillette Trac II commercial, and Steve a tennis ball. To T., the Key Club. To Mark W., a duck. To Jeff W. a farm in Chesapeake. To Brad, a cast. To Capt. F. and Mr. Wirt my Math talents. To Toles, mag wheels. To Coach Ainsley "Thanks for the advice." To Mary Stuart Copeland, speech class and a good time. Finally to ANN COATES, thanks for seeing me through good and bad, to someone who is a part of me the greatest memories of all. And Ann you taught me the meaning of love, Hi Mouse! Finally after 10 yrs., I leave.

I, ANNE AVERY, leave to Mr. Wirt a case of my homemade brew. To Anne T., a bottle of goat's milk and memories of G. W. To "Turtle," the bench at the H., four dollars and a N.Y.E. party. To Beth, the "Mrs. Coordinated" award. To Jeannie, a life time tardy slip. To Wendy, memories of Bolling and a good laugh. To Bou, a truckload of rocks. To Maywood, a ski trip, a star role in E.W.&F., a dictionary full of -age words, and a fantastic 31st. To Mark W., a party at Mallory, a secret, a babysitting job across the street, and a bottle of aspirin. To T., a pair of Lacoste boxers. To Wood, a trip to Chapel Hill. To Page, many "wild and crazy" times in Latin and no more "fourteen Monthers." To Eliz., a trip to Salisbury, the Va. B. guy, and a party at B.B. To Julie, a N.C.A.A. award for cheering and a huge thunder storm. To Susan, a party at your house, a ski trip talk, and some chocolate. To Anne M., a parking ticket, many nights out with the girls, a free dinner at B.K., your big catch, a job as a spy, and a secret to keep. And finally I leave with many memories of great times and good friends.

I, HARRY BAYLOR, leave to Coach Snodgrass the soccer balls, nets, field, 6 great years of soccer, and a big thanks. To Larry, my math notebook to write in. To Mrs. Bachtell, the quote "you cannot sleep unless you make 100's" To Ann A., the nickname "Troublemaker." To Bou, a sleepless day in Calculus class. To Todd, a great ski trip. To Greg, some great times on the soccer field. To Anne T., one last yank of her hair. To Mr. Wirt, a student who at least does his homework. To T., a ride down Old Mill Rd. To Sun, all the help she needs. To Martha, a ride home. To Pudge, a few great years of soccer. To Tom, a Calculus test in which I score higher. To Ed., I leave the car and its dents. And finally I leave with 8 great years behind me at N.C.S.

I, CARTER BERNHARDT, after 10 years, leave to the following to David L., a victim of the system, S.F.U.A. and a secret session during sixth bell. To Matt, a Tuesday night, an MEF, 3rd row at Feat, and his secret hide out under the Opel's seat. To Walt, the word "awesome," Larry, a talkative girl on the beach and an honorary seat in Matt's Chevy. To Linko, a big trip at Hilton Head and a New Riders album. To Pierre, a lost sweater in Waynesboro, and the real truth about the perfect crime. To McGee, a big red machine (may it rest in peace) and 4th bell study hall to reach his apogee. To Andy R., the memory of Bobby Stevens. To Woody, a hello and a handshake and a runners up position in the MEF's plus a night at Gutt's and Toles. To Phil G., a trip to the library on Wednesday night and a cruise down the coast of Colombia. To next year's soccer team, I leave Alan A. as striker. To Mr. Snodgrass a million laps and thanks. To the Prepsters organization — you all know who you are — a Norfolk Academy diploma, topsiders and a 6 of lites. And finally to Susan, an unforgettable two years and a hope for more in the future.

I, MARTHA CAPSHAW, leave to Mr. Flanders, all his extra credit points (if I ever get any), to Mrs. Miller, all her summer reading book tests, to Mrs. Jones, a thanks for being so understanding and giving me a shoulder to cry on, to Mrs. Vermillion, all my really deep thoughts in hopes that you'll somehow understand my interpretations, to Mrs. Rector, a thanks for putting up with me for 3 long years and a really big thanks for everything you've taught me, to Mrs. Freeman, a thanks for finally getting me out of Latin, To T., a big, bright lollipop in hopes that he will never lose it and thanks for trying to find me one and the thought of one day having his own NCS, to Julie, many nights out with the girls, afternoon shopping sprees, a tip to leave at Nick's and a friendship that will never end, and by the way, a thanks for warning me about opening closed doors at Sandbridge, to Elizabeth, Beth, and Julie, some unforgettable moments on the ski trip, to R.D., the name Marsha and all of your little drawings and all of the embarrassment I've suffered because of you, to the girls in study hall, fun times sitting out in the circle, to my carpool, a thanks for brightening up my morning, to H.B. a really big thanks for putting up with me on the ski trip and a night at the Toga party, to Carter, another locker away from mine, to Brooks, an egg to crack on somebody else's head or better yet, your own, to A.R., your full name because that's the one you should use, lots of long talks on the telephone, a Burger King of your very own, nights out w/the girls, lots of boring summer nights, and one of the bestest friendships, to everybody at NCS a thanks for all of the help and encouragement you've given me during my last 4 yrs. at NCS.

I, MARC CARRAWAY, being of questionably sound mind and body, leave to Mike Potter, a John Travolta hair drier, Herbie the Crane, several unbroken records, and a lot of good times I don't remember and some that I do. To Willie, I leave a perfect left, my Mom, a warm sea (or C.), and some wild rides home from Va. Beach. To Franklin, I leave his half of Jimmy Buffet and some get-ups. To Andy Rector, I leave 5 carbon copies of L.B. for next summer, and the soft-board rebellion. To Fuzz, I leave an endless search for a flashing road light. To Mr. Wirt, I leave The Sadist's Handbook. To Wood, I leave a wobbly baseball game, (sorry about that.) to the Sandbridge Surf Club, I leave the Bou Hilton. To Cathy, I leave anything she wants because she deserves it for being a good friend and "maybe someday . . ." I leave my nickname of "Caribou" to anyone qualifying for it. Lastly, I leave the school to my sister to use as she sees fit.

I, R. D. CATHEY, being of reasonably sound mind and body leave Martha Capshaw my whole animal Collection of Turtles and Caribous. I also give to Marc Carraway a white flowered aromatic herb of the carrot family with pungent fruits. I leave Mark Ansell a 24 oz. can of _____ if he can handle it. To Jeff Given I give 10 lbs. of Spanish moss and his life. To Pudge I leave a trash can, instead of my car.

I, TERESA CHANEY, leave the following: to Mrs. McCleary a year's supply of late journals, papers, excuse notes, etc., etc., to Mr. Wirt a hope that someone invents unbreakable chalk, to Mr. Swearingen, Anne T. and Susan M. a triple dip ice cream cone, to "Mad Maude" a big pole and an eye patch, to Mary E. a batch of my terrific brownies, to Brad, Mike, Cathy, and Lucy many juicy stories from Chem. class, to Philip and Marc a summer of wild women, to Penny a wild and crazy guy, to Mike all the foxes he can "handle," a body building book, a pilot license, a slap in the face — you owe me one — a smile, and many thanks, to Cindy and Cathy K. a new set of horns in case their old ones get worn from overuse. To Cathy K. one V.S., a trip to Busch Gardens, a dance at K.H., "thick and chewy," and 100 make-up hours in study hall. And of course to Cindy, a Krispy creme donut, a dirty joke, paper towels, remnants of a green fatigue jacket, a Pet ice cream cup, "tom-boy," a water balloon and thanks for 14 years of friendship.

I, ROBERT CLARK, being of sound mind and body hereby will the following: To Phil G. a tropical island, complete with 80 foot waves. To Mark A. I leave a golf scholarship to Pungo Tech and a coaching job for the Dodgers. To Jeff G. the job of taste testing at Anhauser. To R.D. I leave a race, a new muffler, a couple of subs and all the quarters he needs to survive. To Gordon a smile restrainer, an intelligent answer in government, and a stock car. To Beth a serious look, a smile, a long talk, a modeling job, a party and a drink. To Teresa a long stare, a mutual thought, a good mood, and an apple for lunch. To Caprice a laugh, an unacceptable quote and thanks for enduring my resistance. To Mr. Lane a real room, a hairpiece, a new joke book and a good class. To Mr. Flanders, a trend, a riot and a dictionary. To Mrs. Miller a term paper, a note card, a vocabulary test and the complete works of Bill Shakespeare. To Martha a wild adventure with R.D. To the school I leave my mark, memories and finally I leave this school.

I, SUSAN CROWDER, having lost my mind, leave the following: to Capt. Fennema, new buttons for his old calculator; to Mr. Wirt, many headaches from trying to work Physics problems; to Tina, Liz, Linda, and Elizabeth I leave a Senior year as great as mine; to Danny, Tuesday and Thursday rides; to Frank, 3rd bell Physics, 6th bell waiting and one last spot to have his picture taken; to Barbara, our lunch talks, two years behind me in history and luck; to Mary, Kim, and Randi I leave many more bus rides; to Mary and Iz many happy years and much hope for the future; and to Nancy I leave 5 more years at NCS.

I, TODD CURRY, do hereby leave to Brad some solarcaine and a book entitled How to Become An Extrovert; to Sandi Jay, many thanks for a shoulder to cry on and good luck getting into W&M; to Mr. Wirt, my shoes and to Mr. Lane, 2 dinners at Shoney's and thanks for helping me when I needed it; to John W., a lifetime full of jazz coupled with many unreal summer days at the beach; to Philip, a night with Cheryl Tiegs and a sober day; to Bou, a pickled bud, my skin, James Buffet and all the grábasse you can handle; to Sara G., a date with a construction worker and a night in Ocracoke; to T., my Andrew Lewis album; to Steve S., the coordination that only a runner has; to Tom L., an FM radio and someone to walk your dog; to Debbie L., a rainy date at Peabody's; to the cross country team, many apologies; to Teresa a date and to Caprice, a night dancing, many memories in room 101 and the best 5 hrs. and 20 min. of my life. Finally, I leave my nickname "Fuzz" to anyone unfortunate enough to receive it.

I, PIERRE ESCALANTE, being of fairly sound mind and body, leave to Rene the challenge of topping my attendance record and plenty more runs to help him do it. To Walt I leave ten thousand gas caps and a late show never seen. To Carter a couple of crazy weekends at W&L, and my regrets for missing out on the missed trip to Stanton. To Gary I leave the promise that no more ditches will jump in your way. To Matt I leave the best post track practices ever known, a victorious throw at "voodoo corner," and the dream of a '32 Chevy. To David I leave a cold swim in the James, a bigger closet, and unnumerable Thanks! And finally to all the "M.H. Club" members the greatest times ever spent at Collegiate.

I, ELIZABETH ETHERIDGE, regretfully leave behind ten years of my life and many memories which will always be dear to me. To Amy, I leave the phone number of a special hot line where she can get help on her Spanish homework. To Lucy, I leave a complete collection of all the study guides ever written. To Susan, I leave the hope that she can finish college in three years or less. To all the people that went to Spain, a thanks for a great trip and a trip to Sevilla during La Semana Santa with reservations at Crystales. To Mrs. Buxton, I leave one last "¡No Comprendo!" and thanks for being a friend and a great teacher for five years. To Barron Segar, I leave a place in the Senior Dynasty. To Julia, I leave a seat in the Senior lunchroom. Finally, to Mary, I leave memories and many thanks for a friendship which I will always treasure.

I, CAPRICE EVERTON, hereby leave the following: to the entire Senior Class, my sincerest apologies and please try to remember me in my earlier years; to Anne W., all the Woo's and a good friendship; to Billy L., forgetful Fridays; to A., J., & F., thanx for 5 minutes of your time; to Billy H., a herd of elephants; to Weasle, lots of gossip, La vida ha entrado, y buena suerte; to Frank, my big brother, don't forget the Med.; to Todd, 101, 5 hrs. and 20 min. to treasure, "Tiny Dancer," and lots of love; to Susan, the terrific? times with the Siamese twins and Prom; to Franklin, my 14th birthday present and much more; to Walter, the M&M's candies gang, a Starburst blast-off, exploding Cokes, the J.O. and thanx for everything; to Wood, at last count 65; to Gary, a special friend and all the memories of "Fame"; to a daring person, Al's party and your casualness; to Rene, a never-ending smile; to Mary, el parque y las cosas locas que hicimos; to all of my teachers and the office, many thanks; to Missy, a wedding, a dipsy dumpster, and a Stretch Armstrong doll; A la Senora, me has ayudado mucho con la vida; A la Senorita, dos hombres "altos," la botella de leche?, las noches locas, su consejo, muchas charlas y sé la verdad; to Mr. Wirt, the extracurricular activities of being editor; to Lucy, a calculator, Sprite? and my slipping abilities; Julie, J.H.'s other woman, your father, gov't, and an unique friendship; to Elizabeth R., hold your chin up, and thanks for being there when I needed you; A todos que fueron a Espana, ¿Que recordais?; to Amy, our ups and downs, but our friendship survived; And last, but in no way least, to a very special person, I leave "... the quietest moments ..."

I, BROOKS HILL, being reasonable leave the following: to all the teachers who have had me I leave my perfect spelling. To Mrs. McCleary I leave; the pronunciation of "Nous." To Steve and Ken I leave a pud handbook on how to raise snookums. To Cathy, Susan and Julie a Contact Lens any way they like it. To Rick I leave a Futtaguard. To Mark Williamson I leave a tube of icing. To John Weigle I leave a bent up fork and a salt shaker. To Randy and Tommy I leave nothing. To Randy's brother, David, I leave with the thought of having the wrong key. To NM I leave with the thoughts of the future. To Jeff Whedbee I leave 30 cents for those Fridays at the club. To Virginia I give you the title "Little Sister" for all your help. To the people of Lakewood, "I shall return." To Georgia, a soft whisper to haunt her. To Franklin I leave one last "get it up."

Last Will

I, BRAD HOLSINGER, being of relatively sound mind and limited space leave the following: To "the gang" many "wrinkled" evenings and to Jeanie a pair of 3-D glasses and a dinner at the Esplanade. To Mike a late night snowball fight at Snowshoe and the disastrous run. To Todd two extremely sunburnt bodies and a psychiatric diploma for getting an old introvert like me out of the house. For Debbie H. a "Return to Tobacco Road," and a tired but happy ear. For Greg L. a deep, profound answer for Humanities and a computerized man. For Martha a list of all the Presidents' names and a paint brush to keep on painting. To David M. a lot of thanks for those cold morning deliveries and many other things over the years. To Teresa a gossip session in Chemistry. For Ms. Laundon an octopus and Mrs. Buxton a luna. To Mrs. Freeman an iceberg for your pool next year and a great S.C.A. for next year. To Anne M. games of Kick the Can, a one date stand, and a big place in my high school memories. For Sunshine a thanks for being such a good friend and a roast duck. To Missy a good book to read, a dog, and thanks for the compassion you felt for my fish. To Lisa 4 years of struggling through Spanish together, and making it! For Sandie hot tennis games, many 12 o'clock deadlines and a hope to see you at W&M. To Karen K. a big OYE-VE. To Franklin a lot of carpoolin'. To Julie an "acorn" and Elizabeth a lot of phone calls. For Cathy two gallons of water for your whirlpool and many thanks for being such a good friend. And lastly after 7 adventuresome years at Collegiate I leave.

I, DEBBIE HOLZWEIG, being of spacey mind and short body bequeath to the following: To Amy, boys, "closet games," an evening with Mike and Joey, and 17 years of friendship and a hope for many more. To Laurie, "your room" at my house, boys, best friends. To Shari, a quiet carpool without Amy and the fighting, TT, and a good friendship. To Georgia, a party starting at the Greek Church, long talks, and lots of thanks. To Dana, "Will you go out with her?" To Lucy, long talks, summer school, beach, and parties. To Barbara, singing and dancing in the halls and luck with Scott. To Ricky, HAT, TT, and an old and unforgettable friendship (you may forget something if you wish) To Todd, your own cross country team, drama, and a good friend. To Tom, a party at my house and unlimited use of the phone. To Brad, four years of great friendship, drama, "fun" classes, "inferiority complexes," and lots of thanks. To Pierre, Alg. I and a ten year's supply of paper, pencils, pens, and calculators. To Mary, our very own play where we get the guys. To Greg, MCP, and friends. To Harry, Government and lunch. To Debbie L., a fantastic friendship, great talks, a Senior year, and lots of thanks. To Mr. Flanders, a lifetime membership in my "crazy's club." To Mrs. Vermillion, a 13 month school year and lots of thanks. To all my teachers "thanks." To the drama club a hope for the future. And finally I leave taking all of my memories with me.

I, CINDY HOWERIN, leave to Cathy Echternach a year's supply of notes to leave early, a pack of ponytail holders, "Red" hair, and a big, good looking pole. To Cathy Kesler and Barbara Miller I leave a set of Tasmanian horns and a weekend in Lexington. To Mr. Swearingen I leave the problem of coaching a girls' varsity basketball team. To Teresa I leave fourteen years of friendship, a box of good moods in case of emergency, a no smoking sign to hang in her room, a big ripe banana, and a new set of lips (in case Brian wears her old ones out). To Matthew, Christus, Rick, Cathy, John Lee, Brooks and visitors I leave a big Banana, hard contact lens, creamsicles and a box of "innocent" jokes. To Marc Carraway I leave water balloons, hot dogs, and a date alone w/Cathy Kesler.

I, FRANKLIN HUDGINS, do hereby leave the following to the following people. To Andy R., better known as Rec, I leave a house to wreck and an E-Rec. To Dinky I leave my great quote. To Mr. Wirt an unworkable Calculus problem and a class wilder than ours. To T. long memories of parties, sailing, and times that are typical to good friends. To Carraway, Bou, many great times at the beach, surfing, my one wasted pick up and your millionth, and a starting position on an N.B.A. team. To Mark W. unlimited wild Friday and Saturday nights, and a perfect crossing for a nod into the goal. To Ann Robbie the G.W. days and a great prom. To Wood an everlasting friendship and some great adventures. To Beth F. some great times together and a lasting friendship in the future. Finally after hard work and deliberation, I leave.

I, KATHERINE JONES, being of semi-sound mind leave 7 long years at N.C. and a used brain to whomever wants it. To Brad H. I leave a box of pastels and some used guitar strings. To Mark W. I leave my guitar if I end up selling my sole to C.F. Martin Co. To Olivia Rives I leave all previous attachments to Triple-R-Ranch and to Mikey. To Maria I leave a wonderful cottage on the outskirts of "el parque." To Elizabeth E. I leave extinguished thoughts of bearded wonder. To Mrs. Bachtell I would leave a soapbox but she probably has many by now. To Mrs. Buxton I leave World History, Spanish I, II, III, and IV. To Mr. Lane I leave an assortment of toupees (preferably the same color as his hair), and many urges of my attendance of Young Life. To Mr. Flanders I leave a happy life as a bachelor and a successful career raising Basset Hounds. But most of all, I, Katherine Jones, after much laughter, sadness, good times and struggles, finally leave.

I, CATHY KESLER, leave Mark three of the greatest years of my life filled with memories, happiness and love; to Marc, I leave a very special friendship, long talks on the phone, the jogs, trips to the library, and an upside down smile; to Sandi, I leave our weekly trips to W&M and our endless searches for Mike E., our many meals at Wendy's with the Krispy Kreme doughnuts, the great comments that Andy gave us after b-ball games, ha! ha!, and a very close friendship and finally the Presidency of the S.B.A. To my hope-to-be sister-in-law and the Friendliest girl in school, I leave Cindy our crude jokes, our trip to the Cue, pinches in the hall, and 7:00 bedtime. To Barbara, I leave a big kiss from Harry T. To Lisa or otherwise known as "Ace," I leave all our confidential talks and a really great friendship. To Teresa, I leave a petit faire-faire mouche. To Mr. Swearingen, I leave that anonymous letter written on your desk. To the basketball team, I leave the best of luck for next year with a great coach who I want to thank for being so fair and nice to all of us. To Susan K. I leave all my goofy moods and all my ABC gum. And finally to my carpool the fact that you can see right in the place.

I, JEFF LAIBSTAIN, being of sound mind and body, sometimes, I leave with my classmates as the class of '79. To Larry, I leave 1001 great times including concerts, beach weekend, Spain, Pizza Hut, a crash at Wendy's parties and everything else; To Les, great times, Hampton Blvd., Spain, and an extra set of car keys when it's snowing; To Gordon, chewing gum, driving lessons, and a V.W. fender; To Peter, a Busch Gardens trip, a pool party, and a thanks for help on the Oak Leaf; To Scott, many classes together and a long friendship; to Ken M. and Steve S., I leave a better tennis player and my cousin Shelley; To Cathy K., nearby lockers, a collection of Steve Martin jokes, and a big thanks for a great friendship; to Dana and Georgia, a New Year's Eve Party, Spanish lessons, a broken car window, Humanities class, and Wards Corner; To Wood, T. and Franklin, long friendships and great times. To M.P., T.S., and M.C. Up In Smoke; To Mrs. Buxton and Miss Laundon, "Hola" and Spain; To B.H., T.C., M.C., E.R., and S.M. a friendly smile and 5th bell Humanities; To Paul R., great times and a job at Grand Furniture; To Mrs. Vermillion, I leave my thoughts, my wisdom, and a great class; To Mrs. Bachtell, I leave a friendly "hello" in the halls and 3 years of learning from a terrific teacher; To Caprice, the Acorn, Busch Gardens, and a visit by Bill L. at his sister's; To Mrs. Miller, the best Oak Leaf staff, a vocabulary book, and 3000 study guides; To Rick F., sports articles, camp with my sister and a Second Place Commonwealth. After leaving everything else, I leave N.C.S. after 6 great years.

I, GREG LAING, neither of sound mind nor body, leave Mr. Flanders an autographed copy of Mein Kampf. I leave "Bou" the presidency of "Fullbacks Incorporated." To Brooks Hill I leave a baby bottle. To T. Oast I leave a starting forward position on Portsmouth Catholic's Soccer Team. To Franklin I leave the perfect cross and all the women he can get. To Mike Potter I leave a ski weekend in Ashland. Finally, I leave the promise to the administration to vacate the premises.

I, LES LANDRETH, do hereby leave to Jeff L., R.D., Scott, and Ken a table at Cristales with all of the trimmings. Scott will buy the rounds of course. To Frank and Carol, all the ginebra y limon in Cordoba. To Frank a crow bar to pry his car from any telephone poles that he may encounter. To Gordo, all the pineapple juice (P.J.) in Spain. To Jeff Given, a bed to hide under, a balcony to get locked out on, and a party to go to. To Larry, a hotel room in Sevilla with red satin sheets and a club to fight off the amazon attacks. To Mary, a pillow for all of those hard park benches. To Senorita, someone to drive you home. To Mr. Flanders, a case of "no doze" for his 5th bell Government class. To Mrs. Buxton, another group of Spanish travelers who are as studious and observant as we were. Finally to Lou and Hal, many thanks and a wish for much happiness.

I, JULIE LEHEW, leave to Caprice J.H. and all his questions; to Ann A. and Martha C. all the trips to the beach and all the nights out with the girls; to Ann A. my pair of lost keys somewhere on 69th street; to Mr. Wirt, I leave my Algebra knowledge (What little there is) and all of his remarks so, he can use them to pick on someone else; to Franklin, I leave the wild weekend in wild Collinsville; to Eliz. R. I leave many "I quits," mother's sigh, tears on the phone, infinite shopping trips, and the memories of all the K.L. concerts and our collection of autographs and also a lot of love for being the greatest friend and helping me make it through the past four years; to Mr. N.C.S., I leave MacDonald's sundaes, our job as movie reviewers for the Daily Break, the dream of our home in Colorado and two years packed with a lot of memories.

To Mr. Flanders, one map of the Middle East and a grammatically correct paper. To Mr. Morris, you'll never know how bad it is being the only senior in a sea of juniors. To Mrs. Buxton, a lousy second year but a great fourth year. To Ms. Laundon, a friendship and another charming and bright third year Spanish class. To Mrs. Tignor, the many years of never brining in my registration on time. To Elizabeth E., many classes together. To Janie R., one lunch at McDonalds and many lunches at school. To Lisa A. and Brad H., at least we stuck with Spanish IV. To Wendy W., one cheering uniform and many more years of cheering. To Scott P., many rides to school together. To Mary A., a seashell. To Barbra Turner, a doll. To Peter M., a roll of film and a camera with a cracked lens. To Frank T., Caprica (!!!). To Caprice E. a group of people who do things on time or else. To Rosemary, three fun weeks in chemistry. To Amy W. and all the juniors, Mrs. Miller and her batch of age-old term papers. To Robin P., one weekend of sailing (!) and at last after thirteen years, I leave.

I, SUSAN MOSS, leave Annie a triple dip at Highs and that you remain a nature freak forever. To Sandie, many ear-aches, chicken-noodle soup without water, pizza cooked on the rack and many practices next year. To Patrice, all the times we laughed at nothing, a ride to school and the thought of my shoulders always being there. To Mr. Swearingen, knowing you will never have to coach me again and that someday you could yell at me. To Cathy, a big 11%. To Anne, the thought of my father always looking out for you, many trips to the b _____y, the good ole beach days, all the other times we've had together that I can't go in to and the hopes of our "trio" lasting forever. To Penny, that all her dreams someday come true and that one day she has a million kids. To Matthew, the thought of someday going for a ride in your car (if you ever finish it). To Julie, a life long hand shake. To Mark, all the fun times we've had along with memories of the "island" and the "creek" and finally I leave to Carter memories of all that we have shared together and the dreams of our love lasting forever.

I, MISSY NICHOLSON, leave many memories old and new to Norfolk Collegiate School. To Caprice Everton I leave a tall, dark, handsome toad. To Brad H. I leave a bionic goldfish. To Sunshine a big stack of brownies for being so nice. To John Weigle I leave all of my Alg. II homework. To Walter Moore I leave a long overdue Hello. To Sharon Prosser I leave all of the luck in the world, to help make all of your dreams come true. And to a special friend, Andi Lawler, I leave the following: a map of Norfolk with Military Circle in three dimensional form to carry with you when I'm behind the wheel, a pink rose and a Rolling Stones film and sincerely all of the other memories of Bella Napoli, and our friends that we left behind.

I, T. OAST, leave Franklin a new word to say, and the "Private Party Players."; to the '79 varsity soccer team I leave a "get up" and a victorious season; to Elizabeth R. I leave all my problems, what's her name and a new driver; to Harry I leave my fun since we were knee-high to nothing and a lot of crazy times at the farm; to Mr. Wirt I leave my brains and someone else to make fun of; To Mr. Flanders a realistic world and my complaints; and lastly to Julie I leave concerts, the movie review, Mrs. N.C.S., our house in Colorado, and my love forever.

I, DANA ORLEANS, being of sound mind, hereby leave the following: To Lisa I leave a star whenever she deserves it, and the thought of an ending friendship with April 29th. To Debbie H. I leave a date with R.R. To Debbie L. I leave a new uncrashed car. To Barbara and Georgia I leave a night at the library. To Larry I leave two years of Spanish and a car full of crumbled glass. To Teri I leave a Senior year walleing at school and an Academy party. Now after six years at Norfolk Collegiate I leave.

I, SCOTT PARSONS, leave to Les and Doug all the memories of the great times we had. To Gordon I leave an old Datsun Engine busted beyond repair, to keep him frustrated for a life time. To Ken I leave a map of Spain and to Frank better taste in women (just kidding Frank). To Larry, Jeff, and Chris, my thanks for being such good friends. I leave to Mr. Flanders, a coupon for all the Breyer's ice cream. To The Captain the hope that someday he will be promoted to Admiral. To Mrs. Jones, my thanks for getting me into college (I think). To Mr. Wirt, my three pages of Physics notes in the hope that he will be able to help future classes from the knowledge (or confusion) he receives from these notes. And finally I leave to Mrs. Vermillion my deepest appreciation for all the help she has given me.

I, AMY PETOCK, leaving memories but not friends for they last forever, bequeath the following: To Mary, Spanish classes, A.P. History, Humanities, etc., Portsmouth, Dear Abbey, shadows, and friendship; To Lucy, long talks, parties, fun, and friendship; To Ken Mayo, Jeff Whedbee, and Frank Taylor, one heck of a trip to Richmond for some rotten Spanish food and loads of dull but fun Spanish classes w/La Bruja — 4 yrs. of them; To Iz, Spanish, phone calls, fun, U. Va.; To John Weigle, 1 Spanish movie, 1 dinner at Courtney's a good mood and a beverage to go with it, fun, friendship, and the hope that one day you'll be short too; To Caprice, long talks, phone calls, predictions, boys, one dinner at Bennigan's, Mr. Wirt, a great yearbook, Danny, Spanish, and a great friendship; To Debbie, one house around the corner, loads of fun and friendship that has already lasted 17 yrs.; To Laurie, sixth-bell fun and rides to school; To David, movies, fun, spilled-slurpees, one phone call on a Sat. afternoon, BByo, lots of love and a friendship that will last and last; To Suzanne, cameras, guys, fun, friendship; To Susan, a great sorority daughter; To Lisa, long talks, and a lasting friendship; To Mrs. Buxton, 4 great years of Spanish and long talks; To Mr. Wirt, lots of complaints and great yearbook; To Shari, all the love and friendship one can give a best friend; To Mindy, lots of love, fights, friendship, memories, remember you're my little sis. I'm sorry you're not at Collegiate but I'm glad you're happy; To Jan and Leslie, Ids, Peabody's, "Paraphanalia Park," guys, problems, fights, fun and friendships. And finally I'm done!

I, MIKE POTTER, leave to Teresa, several rides to school and many new and "exciting" experiences. To Greg, I leave an accident insurance policy. Franklin, the saying "give it up" and a cup on long trips. Mark, I leave a perfect wave and a long bachelor life. Parsons, the reason soccer gets the reputation as a contact sport. Mr. Wirt, I leave something. Mrs. Miller, challenge to do one of her term papers. Cindy, I leave a hope for a cleaner mind. Toles, a bet we'll pay-off together, a streak of residential road to do 80 m.p.h., a girl of your choice and the night before the Young Life ski trip. To Bou, I leave a girl, his own private copying machine for a legitimate business ONLY, an unquestionable thirst, the probable winner of our bet and a night at 7-eleven.

I, RUSS POWELL, being of sound mind and body, even after 9 years at Norfolk Collegiate, bestow upon the following these gifts. To Franklin (pudge) Hudgins, I leave a dozen T-shirts with the inscription "Go to Hell World I'm a Senior!" To Doug Smith I leave one negoton barbell set with which to exercise. To Les Landreth I leave a seventh foot, metallic purple "P" mobile, or is it called a stud mobile. To Peter Maroulis I leave a job as head photographer at Penthouse Magazine. To Mrs. Vermillion 20 reject slips, so she may never forget her famed class of rejects. To Mrs. Miller an autographed copy of Shakespeare's complete works. To Mr. Lane a blue 18 wheel Mack truck with which to haul the soccer team. Finally to Mr. Flanders I bestow the job of the President of the U.S. of A.

I, KRISTEN PUCHER, leave to Jeanie, suspect no. 2, R.M. at Big Star, Russian sheepskin hats, a chase scene for Kojak in Ghent, brownies minus ½ the ingredients, 005 and company, hotcakes, a book entitled How to Organize Your Life, Shadow Dancing, Johnathan and Fredrick, many Wrink nights of just us gals, a big thanks for listening to me and my problems and the best of luck in the future. To Beth, Farrah, an endless supply of Blue Cheese dressing, a one way ticket to V.M.I., a prom without flowers, a wild and crazy year at college, frozen food Fred, Miss Pinkstin and Rachael, another dinner party and a thanks for being a briend. To Hap, a yearbook to sign, the Pink Panther, the Pretzel, Dr. Flex, Stuckeys, Greyhound buses, our first movie, and lots of luck in your senior year. To Harry, a l-long friendship. To Timmy, a space in my will to write anything you want. To Mrs. Rector, a hug from an artist to be, To Rick and Mark, our math classes. To Barron, "Kris-Chian". To Brad, 3 legs — one as a substitute and finally I leave Collegiate.

I, LORI PUNTE, leave to my sweet little sister, my deepest sympathies for returning to this delightful establishment. To Barbra Miller, the ability to come to school with a very open mind and a cigar on the skylift. To Cathy K. a lot of "dreamy things". To Barron S., a hot valentine, To Timmy S., a poster of the lunar surface. To Mr. Atkinson, a can with a snake in it so he can scare himself once and a while, and To Captain Fennema, some Hot-Legs.

I, CHRIS REEVE, being of body and partial mind will hereby try to leave. To Mrs. Miller, and Mr. Flanders, a legible, perfect paper. To Mr. Wirt, a perfect grade on a Calculus test and a Larry M. laugh. To Cap'n, all the homework I did in Trig. To Scott, a revolving stall door that doesn't lock, a road map, and a seasons pass for the Portsmouth tunnel. To Scot and Les, Will Sawmer. To Frank, a telephone pole. To Gordon, a lost day in Spanish class. To Doug, a pair of pants to wear in Calculus and a passing Calculus grade. To Steve, questions never answered in Chemistry class. To Suzanne and Laura, two seatbelts and a ride home.

I, ELIZABETH RITTER, leave to Wood, a lot of great locker conversations, a rose, and a chicken fight on Powhatan. To John Lee, a glare in English, Mr. Bell and thanks for listening. To Wendy, a cruise down Bolling in the Barracuda and a coke in second bell. To Philip, the memories of some crazy times. To Toles, a big ?, To L.E.R., four more years and the best of luck. To Mr. Sadler, the memories of our great softball team. To Andy, a fantastic senior year. To Susan M., a place on our own debating team. To Mike P., a hard time. To Caprice, a big thanks for listening and a lot of laughs. To Franklin, my dull sense of humor. To Ann Robby, the summer of '77, a Kenny Loggins concert and some heart to heart talks. To T., a "Hey good lookin' ", the memories of all our great foursomes and a BIG thanks for always being there. To Julie, a morning bus ride, A Guide to Riding Bikes, the memory of Loggins & Messina the heaves, a good cry, a trip to military, some gritty coconut, and all the rest of our great times and the most fantastic friendship that will always last. And now I leave with all the rest of my memories to cherish.

I, JANIE ROPER, being of and in sound mind or whatever leave behind to N.C. the silent echo of my footsteps stalking the narrow halls of a high school past.

I, WOOD SELIG, leave to Franklin, a flat soccer ball and a V.M.I. haircut. To Bou, a book entitled How To Load Your Sister's Camera. To R.D., a hook shot and a case of empty Cokes. To Carter, a wild chase in reverse and a snowman. To Willie, a missed goal and a year with Mr. Wirt. To Swoope, a stringless tennis racket, flat balls and Brooks. To Toles, a new carpet (sorry). To Livingston, an adapter to plug in his ear at night to re-charge his brain. To Walter, an eaten lunch in the library and a Flanders class. To Puddin and Richard, a baseball team, a keg at my house, and each other. To Doug, the weight machine. To Caprice, an extra box of yearbooks, 55 or whatever it is and a thank you. To Missy, a "welcome back". To Mike, a monestary. To Elizabeth, instructions on how to drive. To Ann A., U.N.C. To Cathy and Cindy, the Hermitage. To Andy, an empty car pool, a flat day, and Mr. Howlett. To my sister, the Jeep to wreck and ruin. To my parents an empty room. To Squid, an in school suspension, a book entitled How To Coach, Teach, and Maintain Order in Your Class, and a deep voice. To Mr. Wirt, a box of crickets to burn slowly. To Mr. Flanders, the Bill of Rights, a third book and a new car. To Mr. Atkinson, a lifetime pass to the cleaners. To the Senior Class, a keg party at my cottage after we all graduate and good luck to everybody. To the junior class, a super senior year and best wishes. And finally to Robyn, a rainy Dec. 17 night, my coat, a lip, all the little things, a crowbar, a 23rd, 16 plus, Trailways, tinee tiny lunch box, Circus tickets, a Nags Head summer, some fries and your shake, rumpelstiltskin, a secret, a memory, a map and a scholarship to W.&L., a "good night", a few bad times but unlimited good times, and a hope for the future.

I, MATTHEW SHRIVER, being of wild and crazy mind leave the N.C. enigma behind. I take with me the championship of the past-track drain shooter assoc. and the Opel. To Mr. Snodgrass, I leave the thought that soccer players do it for 90 minutes and the T.C.I.S. championship. To Walt and Carter, I leave a lot of good times and an unexpected M.E.F. To David, I leave a 396 Chevelle with the wish that he could have been here. To the junior class, I leave the task of carrying on without a non-perfect class to cut down anymore, best wishes anyway. Finally I leave Marcia, Steve. And to anyone who cares, the fact that my Chevy will ride again.

I, DOUG SMITH, being of questionable mind, leave the following: to Ansell, a weight belt, a pair of $45 running shoes, and the desire to be slim; to Harry, my mathematical ability; to Carter, 2 technicals, 5 fouls, and an Econ. Test; to Carraway, 3 elbows, a busted spleen, and my SAT scores; to R.D., a stupid expression, a slam dunk kit with breakable bankboard, and the most familiar last 30 seconds of B-Ball games; to Given, a lifetime pass to AA meetings; to Pudge, some good Calculus grades; Les, a camel to take to the desert, a keg of anything, some good times and jokes, and one of his Don't Worry speeches; to Mayo a book on How to Improve Your Study Habits; to McGee, clouds #9, #8 and #13; to Walter, my radar shooting ability and a game for HORSE; to Parsons, 10 years of friendship, some rowdy times, a bathroom door to climb over, and a free trip to Portsmouth; to Chris, many teachers like Mr. Wirt; to Rusty, a pink Mark V and the corruption of Portsmouth; to Wood, my size 14 tennis shoes; to Matt, my ability to stay sober; to Gordon, a Corvette; to Frank, a lifetime pass to the Navy barber and a bunk next to St. Matlovich in the Air Force; to John Lee, a bottle of visine; to Mrs. Bachtell, a long lecture and a soap box; to Mr. Sadler, a paper to read; to Mrs. Miller, a quiet class; and to my favorite teacher of all time, I leave Mr. Wirt a do it yourself death certificate with a hangman's noose.

I, GORDON SINKEZ, being of reasonable sound mind and body, do hereby bequeath the following: To Larry, I leave a hotel room in Spain, an amazon, a lifetime supply of cherries, and a WGH sticker. “ . . . Jungle love it's drivin' me mad
it's makin' me crazy
Jungle love it's drivin' me mad
it's makin' me crazy
But lately you live in the jungle
I never see you alone
We need some definite answers
So I thought I would write you a poem
The question to everyone's answer is usually asked from within
But the patterns of the raid and the truth they contain have written my life on your skin . . .
You live in a world of illusion
Where everything's peaches and cream
We all face a scarlet conclusion
But we spend our time in a dream
Jungle love it's drivin' me mad
it's makin' me crazy
Jungle love it's drivin' me mad
it's makin' me crazy

TRACK

Although the season did not turn out as well as expected, the track team, coached by Mr. Vanderberry and Mr.

Sadler, did have some outstanding individual performances. Jon Hardin, voted MVP, established school records in the 440, long jump, triple jump, and with the relay team. The track team placed fourth in the T.C.I.S. tournament, and its overall record was 3-6.

John, run, run, run!

Stuart easily gets over.

Mark can really jump those hurdles.

FIRST — Coach Sadler, K. Shriver, D. Phillips, M. Potter, K. Kruger, M. Williamson. SECOND — T. Livingston, M. Lewis, T. Curry, P. Jett. THIRD — E. Virgili, J. Dennis, F. Hudgins, D. Marshall, R. Parsons, B. Holsinger, J. Rachels, K. Torrains. FOURTH — M. Smith, B. Hemingway, S. Taylor, Coach Vanderberry, J. Hardin.

GOLF

The 1978 NCS golf team had a very successful season. Following is a list of some of the team and individual accomplishments:

- *TCIS Champions
- *Undefeated in the conference
- *School record for season (11-2)
- *Lowest team score in match (317)
- *TCIS Medalist (Carter Bernhardt)
- *Second place in tournament (Walter Moore)
- *School record — lowest score shot in match (73 — Carter Bernhardt)

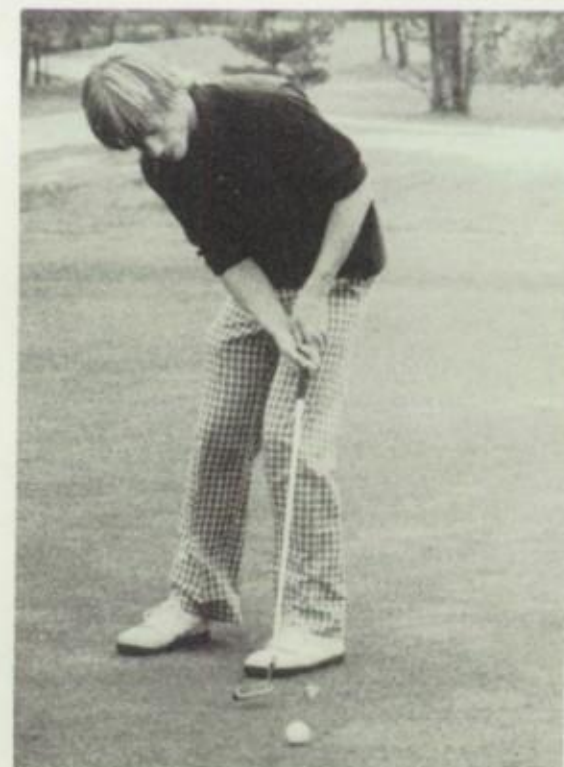

Coach Swearingen, C. Bernhardt, J. Given, M. Ansell, A. Whitehurst, W. Moore, M. Tayloe.

Look how far it went!

Jeff watches it roll in.

Carter putts it in.

Walter shows the others how it is done.

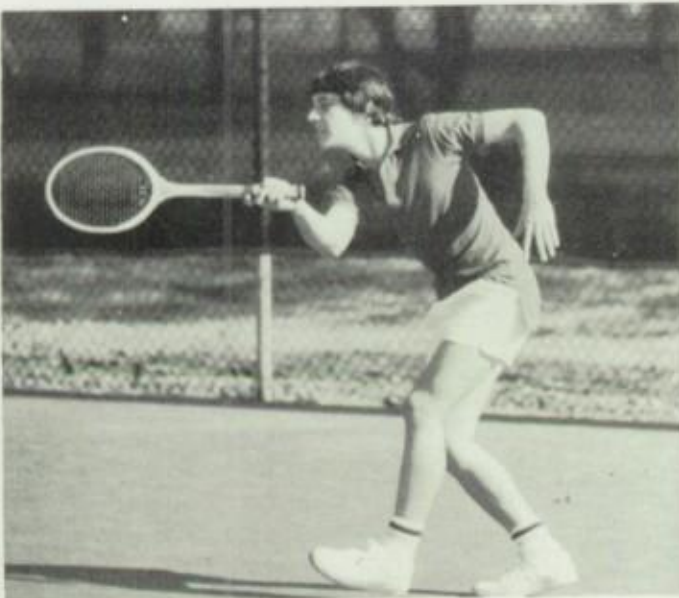

Mark and Al plan their strategy.

BOYS' TENNIS

The Norfolk Collegiate boys' tennis team had its most successful year in which it compiled a record of 10 and 2. Under "Hollywood" Howard Ainsley, who garnered Coach of the Year honors, the team captured its first T.C.I.S. championship by winning all six singles positions. Steve Swoope, who was selected as MVP, led the team with the help of John Weigle and Alan "Ace" Anderson, both of whom finished the year with undefeated records. Other members of the team included Ken Mayo, Brooks Hill, and Briand Greer.

FIRST — A. Anderson, S. Swoope, B. Hill, C. Forsberg. SECOND — K. Mayo, J. Weigle, H. Schwan. THIRD — Coach Ainsley.

Clay looks for the ball.

John runs for the ball.

Steve has a great serve.

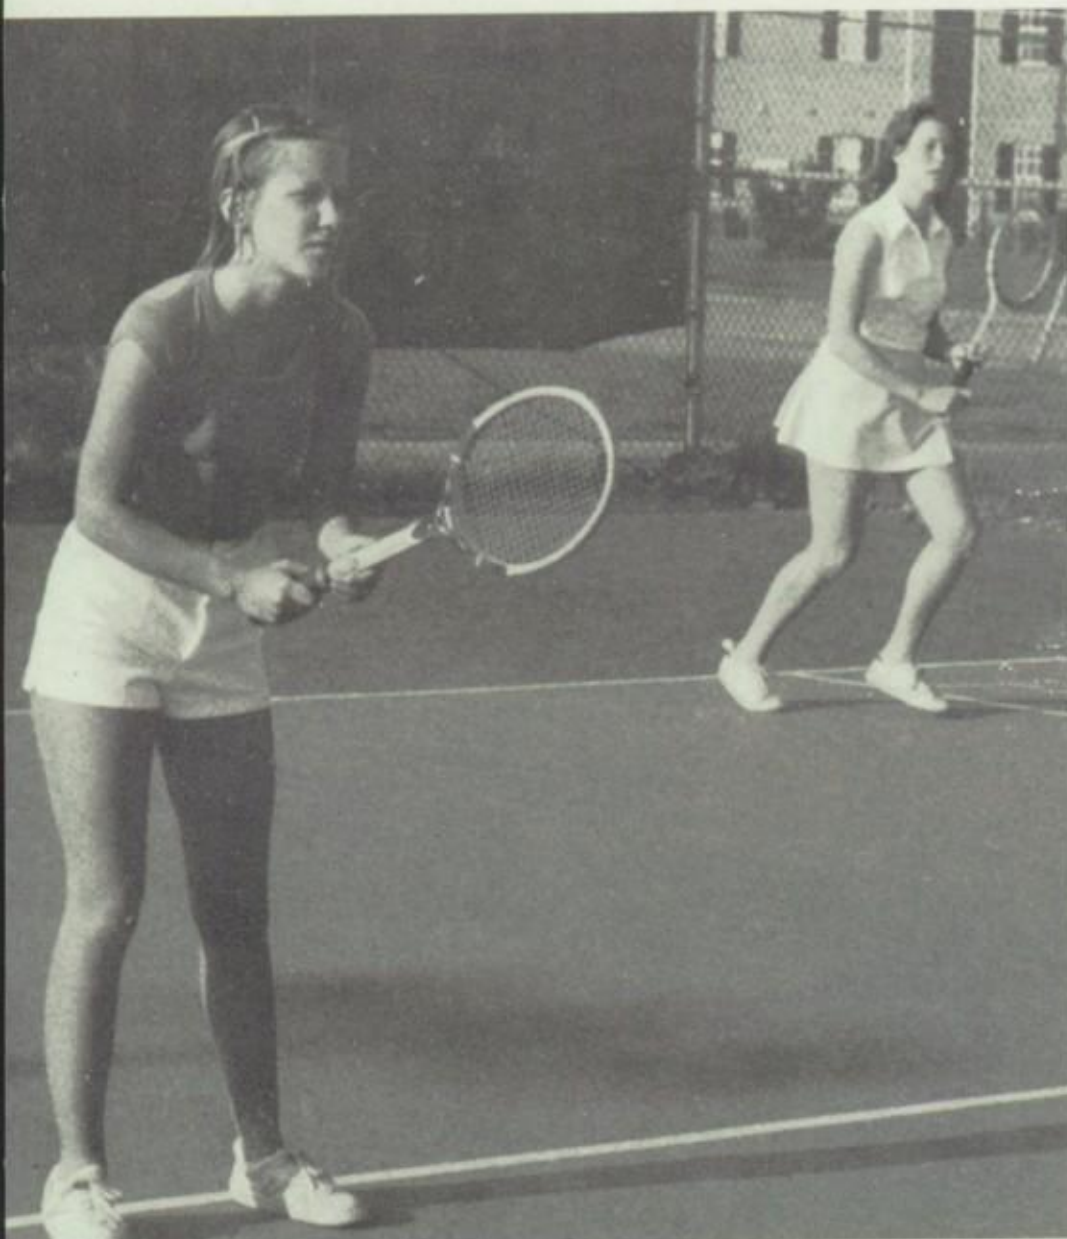

Alan "aces" the ball.

GIRLS' TENNIS

The Norfolk Collegiate girls' tennis team ended the 1978 season with a winning record of 5-4. The girls proved to be very strong against the area's public schools. The team lost four Seniors Karen Easterling, Stuart Forsberg, Betty Laibstain, and Karen Adler, but the outlook for the future is bright with many young, talented reserves eager to fill the vacancies.

FIRST — E. Drake, E. Forsberg, S. Fitchett, J. Johnston, S. Dunn, B. Laibstain. SECOND — Coach Park, M. Park, S. Moss, K. Easterling, S. Baker, L. Baggs, M. Petock.

Elizabeth and Sandi await the ball.

Susan prepares to serve.

J.V. SOFTBALL

The Girls' JV softball team had a very successful season.

Although the team was composed largely of 8th graders, they finished the regular season with a 5 and 5 record, but they lost to the Champion Norfolk Catholic girls in the first round of the tournament and were eliminated. The MVP was an 8th grader, Sue Kennedy. She pitched, played first base, and was one of the leading hitters on the team. Other girls who were outstanding were: Maryann Elsasser (one of the few 10th graders), Chris Mitchell, Louise McCleary, Caroline Jett, and Robin Blanchard. Next year's team should be much better as most of the girls will be returning.

FIRST — E. Cavros, K. Shoemaker, E. Hobbs, L. McCleary, B. Waters. SECOND — L. Goldsticker, S. Low, L. Aron, L. Miller, C. Mitchell, M. Elsasser, M. Rosenblatt. THIRD — A. Sutton, R. Blanchard, J. Pierce, S. Kennedy, C. Jett, Coach Chapman.

Elizabeth cools off before batting.

Jessica prepares to swing.

VARSITY SOFTBALL

The Girls' Softball Team did not have an outstanding season, but they did improve considerably over the last year. Marta Ruggles, Jessica Clarke, and Robin Dalby were among the Seniors on the team. Marta was awarded the MVP award. The remaining members of the team are looking forward to a prosperous season next year.

Laura and Anne are thrilled with the game.

Cathy winds up, for the pitch.

Jessica gets ready to swing.

Mary cheers her team on to victory.

Debbie watches the game.

BASEBALL

For the first time the Baseball team played in the TCIS tournament, placing second. The team had an overall record of 7 wins and 10 losses and 5-7 in the conference. The team was led in hitting by Wylie Cooke (.421 average, 8r.b.i.) and Roland Hagan (.327 average, 9r.b.i.). Although the 1979 team will be young they will have a lot of varsity experience.

FIRST — Ms. Laundon, F. Denaro, S. Bryan, W. Selig, M. Miller, R. Baker, B. Hurt, T. Oast, R. Orrell.
SECOND — M. Curtis, W. Cooke, K. Denison, J. Whedbee, J. Kroll, E. Moore, K. Miller, R. Hagan, P. Werz, Coach Stevens.

1978 Seniors — S. Bryan, R. Hagan, J. Kroll, K. Denison, E. Moore, M. Curtis, W. Cooke.

What an enthusiastic team!

Mike brings in another run.

A perfect example of the contact sport of Baseball.

Jeff swings into action!

Steal it, Phil!

CROSS COUNTRY

Although this year's cross country team posted a 4-7 record, there were some outstanding performances. Page Jett, who ran no. 1 during the season, placed fifth in the T.C.I.S. meet, and Winston Brown, a seventh grader, placed first in the J.V. meet. This year's team was very young but with the experience gained this year plus the fact that everyone will be returning next year, they should prove to be very competitive.

Tom looks for the finish.

J.V. SOCCER

Out of nine games, the J.V. Soccer Team sustained only one loss and three ties. Beginning the season with some excellent starters, they took winning initiative against Portsmouth Catholic, Walsingham, Bollingbrook, and Brewbaker. Rene Diaz and Wood Parsons led the attack, and Eddie Baylor bolstered an enthusiastic, yet otherwise inexperienced defensive squad. This fall was a profitable year in training skillful players from grades 7 through 10; this development assures future success in Norfolk Collegiate's growing soccer program.

FIRST — J. Raiford, D. Lerner, B. Stroud, J. Wheeler, J. Cottrell, G. Pierce, D. Lille. SECOND — L. Oden, S. Zellner, H. Addington, R. Moorefield. THIRD — T. Moss, J. Schaubach, J. Jones, H. Who will get there first?

Get it Rene!

Push him out of the way, guys!

This year the Oaks finished with the best season in the school's history with a 15-2 record. The team was also the first team to win both the regular season title and the tournament championship. The team was led by Senior Forward Carter Bernhardt and Senior Back Mike Potter who were named to the All-Conference Team. Franklin Hudgins and Andy Protogyrou were also named to the T.C.I.S. All-Conference Team. Matt Shriver was named Outstanding Offensive Player for the tournament. As one can see, it was a great record breaking year for the Oaks.

FIRST — D. Marshall, T. Oast, M. Shriver, J. Rachels, H. Baylor, R. Parsons, M. Carraway, M. Williamson, M. Potter, G. Laing, K. Miller. SECOND — M. Walker, T. Howlett, S. Hall, A. Anderson, A. WINTER SOCCER

Norfolk Collegiate's Winter Soccer team posted a 1-4 mark in a season shortened by snow. This team was hampered by a shortage of players, who though outmanned, did well against a number of strong opponents. An opportunity was provided for younger players to obtain valuable experience for the future.

FIRST — Coach Morris, J. Raiford. SECOND — T. Oast, T. Curry, R. Given, H. Baylor. THIRD — A. Protogyrou, S. Zellner, B. Segar, J. Baylor, J. Dennis. FOURTH — G. Shoemaker, F. Hudgins, J. Jones, C. Lee. MISSING — B. Holsinger.

Todd would kill for a victory!

Mike goes for the ball and then for a win.

WRESTLING

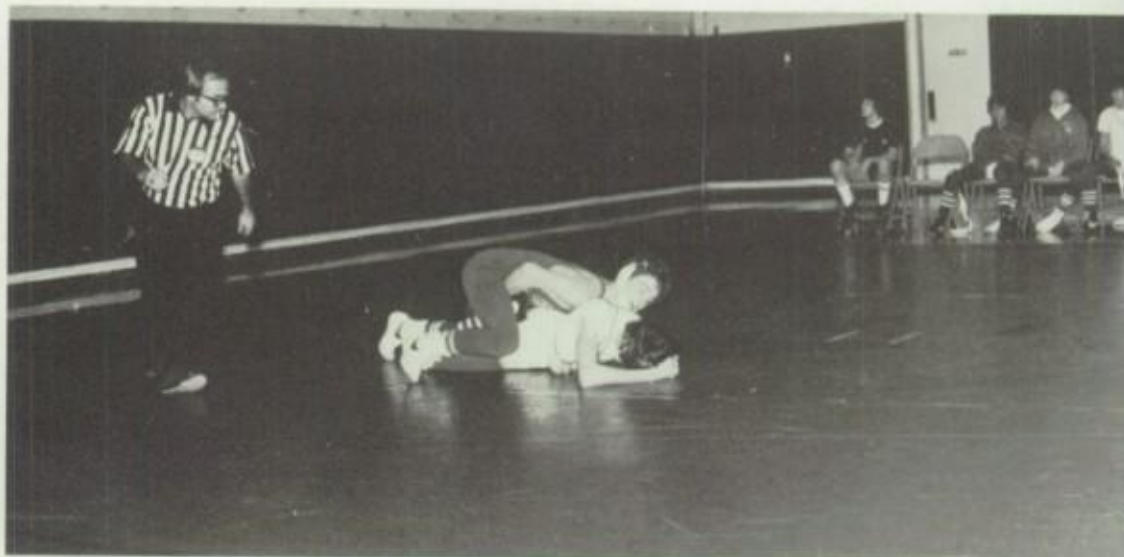

Despite the 2-9 record, this year's team has done a very good job and has gained tremendously in experience. This year's team captain was Marc Martinez, a Junior, who wrestled 138 and placed third in the T.C.I.S. tournament. Aside from Marc, the other outstanding wrestler was Woody Parsons, a Freshman, who posted an 8-1 record for the season.

Pin Him!

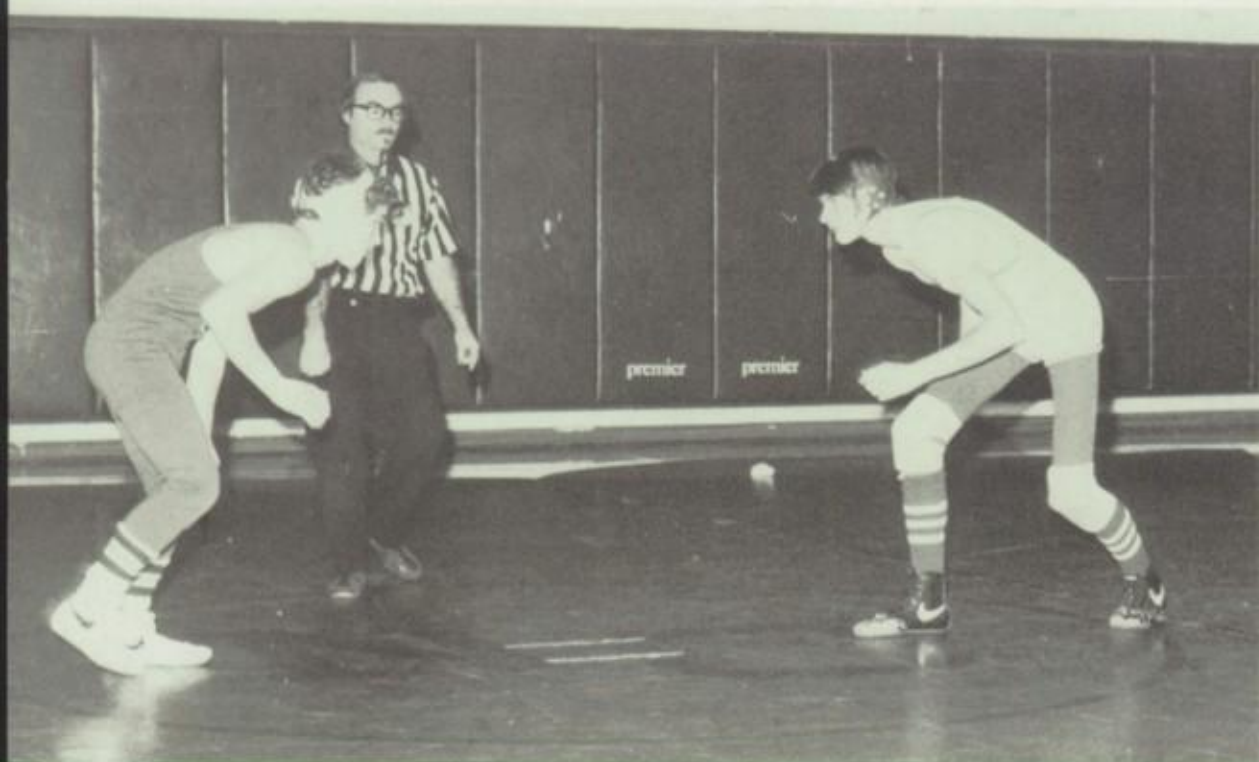

Get your man!

Oaks go for another victory!

SWIMMING

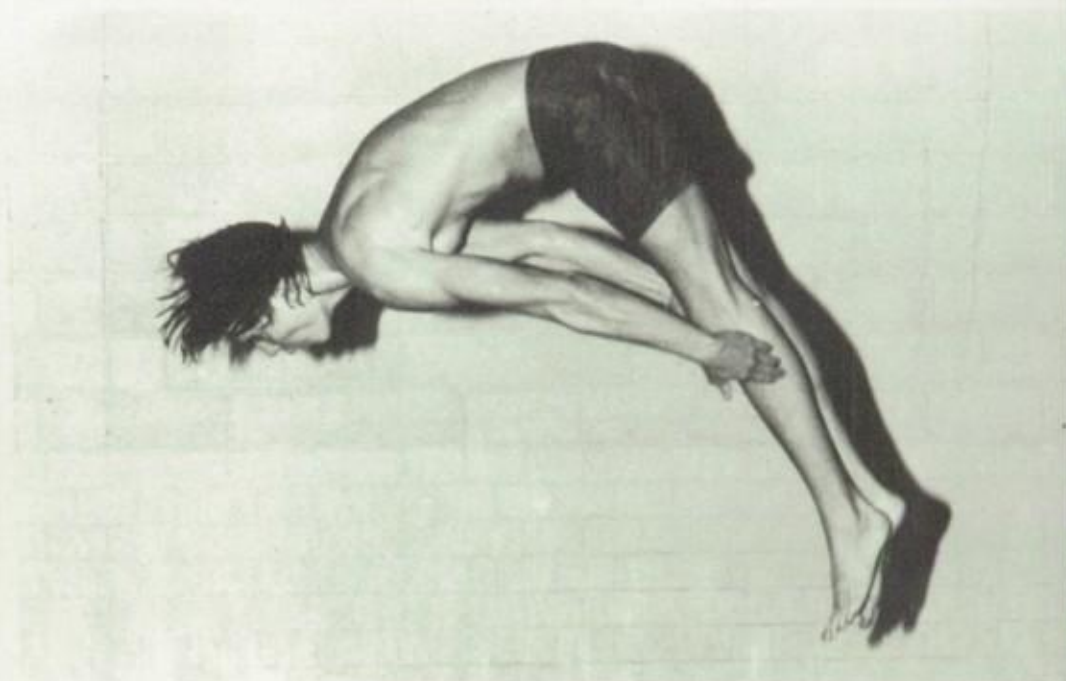

The NCS Swimming team did very well considering the short number of boys on the team. Jeff Whedbee was undefeated for the season in diving as was Mary Kate Landreth in the 100 yd. butterfly. Unfortunately, the boys' record was 0-6, but the girls posted a 5-1 record. The girls should be a real power in the area. The boys could be strong if they had more swimmers.

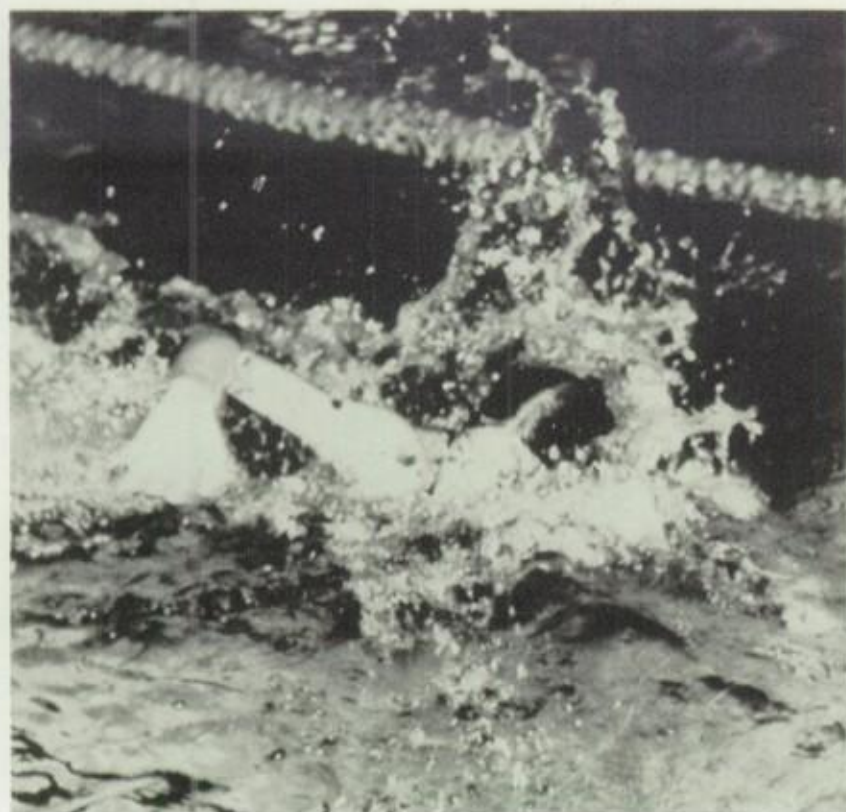

FIRST — J. Merrick, B. Power, R. Hopkins, A. Landreth, M. Landreth, S. Kroskin. SECOND — J. Whedbee, J. Evett, M. Walker, S. Hall.

Michael does one of his tricks.

Okay Oaks let's go, go, go, go!

VOLLEYBALL

The Volleyball Team has had a very successful season. They started off the season by coming in 3rd place in the Norfolk Catholic Tip-Off Tournament. Because of the excellent team effort and the fantastic coaching ability of Mrs. McMichael, the team compiled a record of 9-8, which placed them in 4th place. Cindy Butt is the team's responsible manager. The two co-captains are Cindy Howerin and Cathy Kesler.

FIRST — C. Butt, T. Perkinson, M. Elsasser. SECOND — E. Cavros, S. Baker, L. Aron. THIRD — L. Rives, N. Wilkins, L. Miller, M. Park, E. Etheridge. FOURTH — C. Carraway, S. Moss, K. Kruger, C. Kesler.

The coach talks, Sandi prays.

And it does for another OAK victory

J.V. GIRLS' BASKETBALL

The JV girls' basketball team had a very successful season. Although their record was only 9 and 7, they lost only to 3 different teams. (Norfolk Catholic 2 times, Portsmouth Catholic 3 times, and Poquoson twice). The five losses to Portsmouth and Poquoson were by a total of 14 points, so the record could have been easily 14 and 2. Outstanding individuals on the team were Virginia Clarke, who averaged over 15 points per game and was the leading scorer for the season and Sue Kennedy, who was the leading rebounder and second leading scorer. The girls' record undoubtedly would have been better except for the loss of Elizabeth Forsberg, who broke her ankle. Louise McCleary did an excellent job of filling her position, however. All in all it was a happy experience for the girls and they gained a great deal of experience which will help them on Varsity in the future.

FIRST — B. Power, A. Waff. SECOND — M. Elder, J. Tuttle, E. Forsberg, L. McCleary. THIRD — R. Hopkins, V. Clarke, B. Scott, S. Kennedy, R. Harrington, E. Drake, B. Waters.

VARSITY GIRLS' BASKETBALL

The 1978 girls' basketball team finished the season with 13 victories and 10 losses. The team was lodged in second place throughout the season until a couple of tough losses at the end of the season dropped the team to a fourth place finish. Playing an inspired game in the tournament, the girls lost to defending champion Norfolk Catholic by only 2 points. However, the girls were able to revenge a late season loss to Walsingham by defeating them in the tournament for third place. Three girls on the team were honored by being selected to the All-Conference 2nd team: Senior Cathy Kesler; and Juniors, Sandi Baker and Mary Eppes. Mary Eppes was also selected to the All-Tournament Team and Sandi Baker was selected as the MVP on the team. Besides Cathy Kesler, the other outstanding Senior in the starting lineup was Susan Moss. Playing exceptionally well in key reserve roles were Seniors Teresa Chaney, Cindy Howerin, and Anne Taylor. Key Juniors returning next year will be Lane Rives, Karen Kruger, Tina Perkinson, Mary Park, and Cathy Echternach.

Mary steals it away!

JR. J.V. BASKETBALL

The Jr. J.V. (6th and 7th grades) team plays in the Little Mac League each Saturday morning at Cape Henry Collegiate. As of this date they are undefeated and no team has come close to beating them. Their record is 13-0 and they have several games yet to play including a tournament. They have an array of talent for this age group and if all of the players remain at N.C.S. they will undoubtedly develop into the best varsity team ever. Some of the outstanding players are: Andy Howerin, Jimmy Cottrell, Stewart Pasantino, Guy Pearce and Philip Rachels. The team is coached by Mr. Hurt.

The 8th and 9th grade team is coached by Mr. Chapman. They play an independent schedule. Some of the opponents are Norfolk Academy, Norfolk Christian, Hampton Roads and Nansemond Suffolk and Portsmouth Catholic. Their record at present is 12-1 with two regular season games to play and a tournament to be held at Norfolk Christian. The outstanding players are: Carl Dalton and Jack Kotarides.

FIRST — T. Mathas, M. Waranch, S. Locke, J. Rucci, C. Hobbs, J. Wheeler, T. Simpson. SECOND — R. Sutton, E. Acra, S. Pasantino, A. Lambert, G. Pearce, J. Cottrell, P. Rachels.

FIRST — J. Kotarides, Coach Chapman, C. Dalton. SECOND — J. Reeve, L. Maddy, W. DeBaun, T. Lloyd, H. Miller, A. Weineberg, R. Schwartz, D. Lille, A. White, B. Exum.

J.V. BOYS' BASKETBALL

With captains John Rachels and Clay Forsberg, the J.V. team has had a fairly successful season even though they lost their starting center, John Lee, because of a dislocated elbow. The present record is 14-6. The tournament was to be played later. As for the tournament, Coach Ainsley said that it was up for grabs because the Oaks are quite capable of taking Christian and Catholic. There was a great amount of leadership from Sophomores, John Rachels, Clay Forsberg, Billy Waff, David Innes, Keith Miller, David Marshall, Tim Siviter, Paul Decker, and Blake Brown.

VARSITY BOYS' BASKETBALL

The 1978-79 Varsity Boys' Basketball Team finished the season with an 18-11 record, but more importantly with the T.C.I.S. Tournament trophy for the second year in a row. The Oaks began the season with the Second Annual Tip-Off Tournament and came in second to Princess Anne. The Oaks, considered the dark horse by all but their fans, surprised the conference by beating the Academy, Christian, and Norfolk Catholic in the T.C.I.S. Tournament. Jeff Tayloe was named to the all-conference team. Marc Carraway and Carter Bernhardt made the all-tournament team. The Oaks are only losing four Seniors this year, so the 1979-80 team should be right at the top again.

FIRST — B. Mann, J. Howlett, B. Tayloe. SECOND — Coach Ainsley, Ms. Laundon, Coach Howlett. THIRD — J. Given, A. Rector, W. Selig, B. Hurt, C. Bernhardt, J. Weigle, J. Tayloe, M. Carraway, R. D. Cathey, B. Hemingway, P. Werz, P. Moore, T. Howlett, M. Ansell.

T.C.I.S. 1979

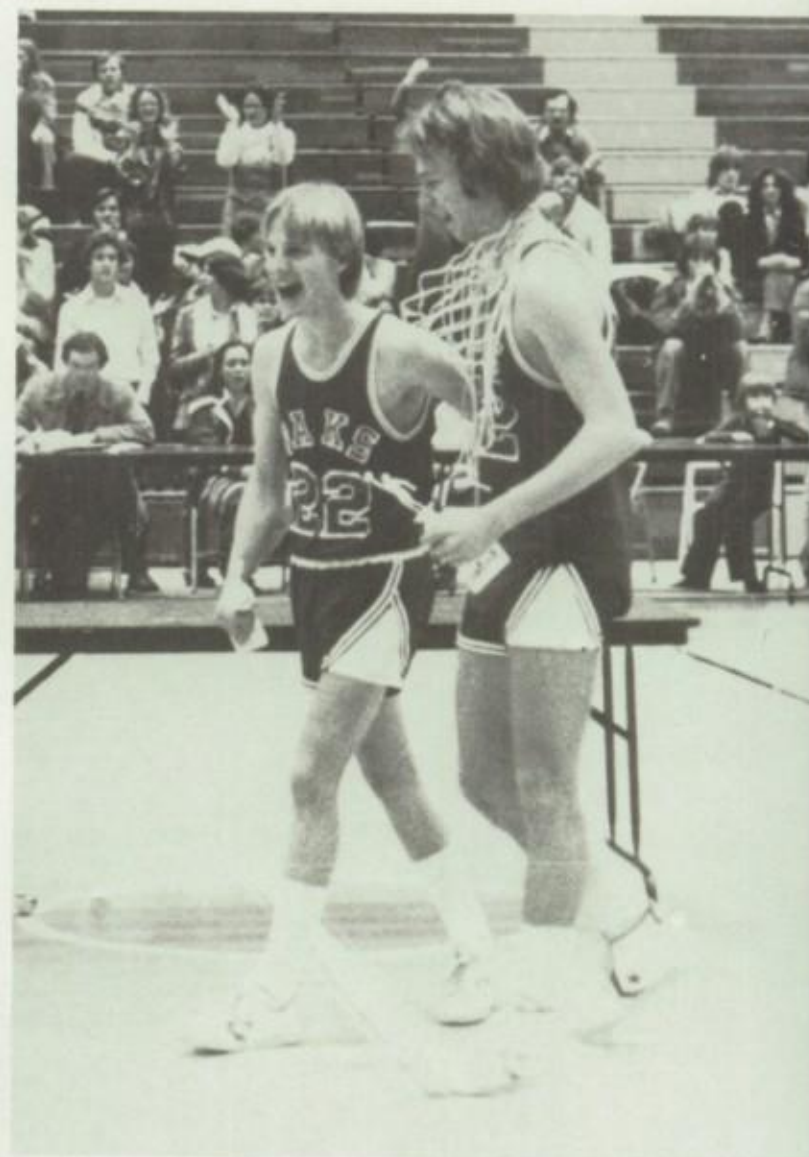

Once again the Varsity Basketball Team captured the T.C.I.S. Tournament crown. The first day of the tournament took place at Virginia Wesleyan College. There, the Oaks swamped Norfolk Academy 71-46. The next game, played at Old Dominion University Fieldhouse, was against the regular season champion, Norfolk Christian. In that game we won with the score of 67-60. In a very exciting game we recaptured the tournament title by destroying Norfolk Catholic 71-60. Carter Bernhardt and Marc Carraway made the all-tournament team. Jeff Tayloe had been chosen for the all-conference team. It was an exciting season and all of their loyal fans are looking forward to next year.

PROM 1978

On Wednesday, May 31, 1978, the Seniors, Juniors, and Sophomores had their prom at Holiday Inn Scope. The Andrew Lewis Band filled the ballroom with the best music possible for the occasion. The Junior Class raised all of the money for the Prom. They picked the theme of "Bon Voyage" and decorations were done accordingly. It was an evening remembered by all.

GRADUATION 1978

On June 3, 1978, the Senior Class of '78 said goodbye and departed from Norfolk Collegiate. Graduation was a day of intense excitement coupled with tears. Powell Baker was the valedictorian and Michael deLeeuw was the salutatorian. We hope the Seniors will have much success in their future endeavors.

Powell Baker addresses the Senior Class, parents, and faculty in his valedictorian speech.

Mrs. Keene listens intently to Powell Baker address the Senior Class.

Cartie Lominack accepts an award.

With tears in their eyes, the Seniors sit awaiting the close of graduation.

Julie Powell enjoys some punch at the graduation reception.

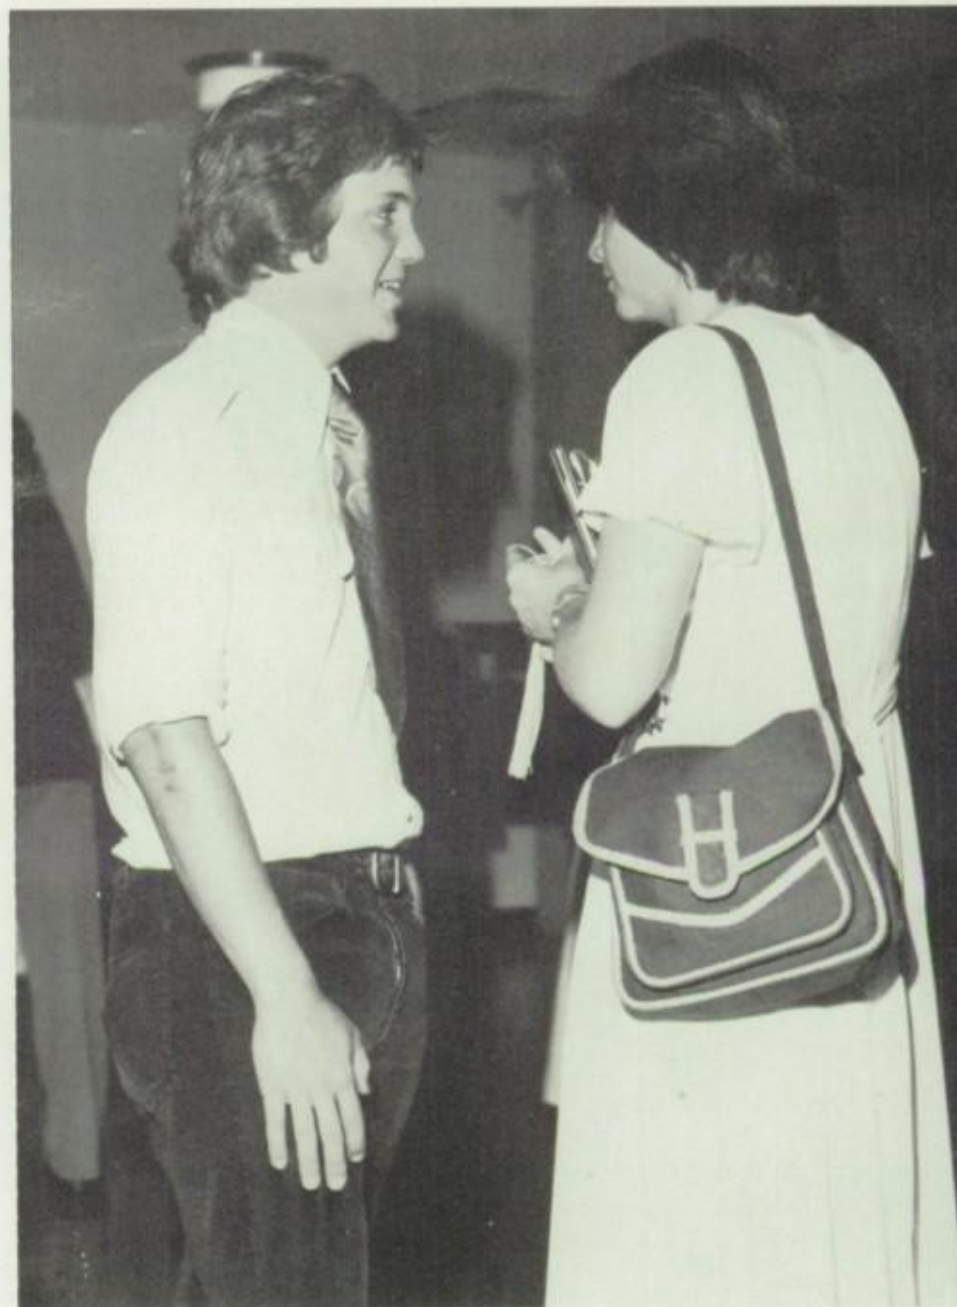

The Seniors applaud Mr. Etheridge as he says goodbye and good luck to all of them.

Rev. Woodward was the guest speaker at commencement.

Mary Alberti serves punch to a thirsty Tommy Gustin.

Randy Fansler and Marta Ruggles discuss their plans for the future.

COUNTRY FAIR

The Country Fair was held on May 13, 1978. It was a huge success! There was much fun and excitement shared by everyone. Among the many attractions, the sophomores and juniors held a spook house and the French Club had a pastry booth. There was also an auction with Mr. Peter Decker as the auctioneer. The day was one of prosperity for the Oaks.

Katie Horton pretends she's a balloon man.

"Don't be scared! The spook house won't be that bad."

"Boy, the line for the Space-Walk is really long!"

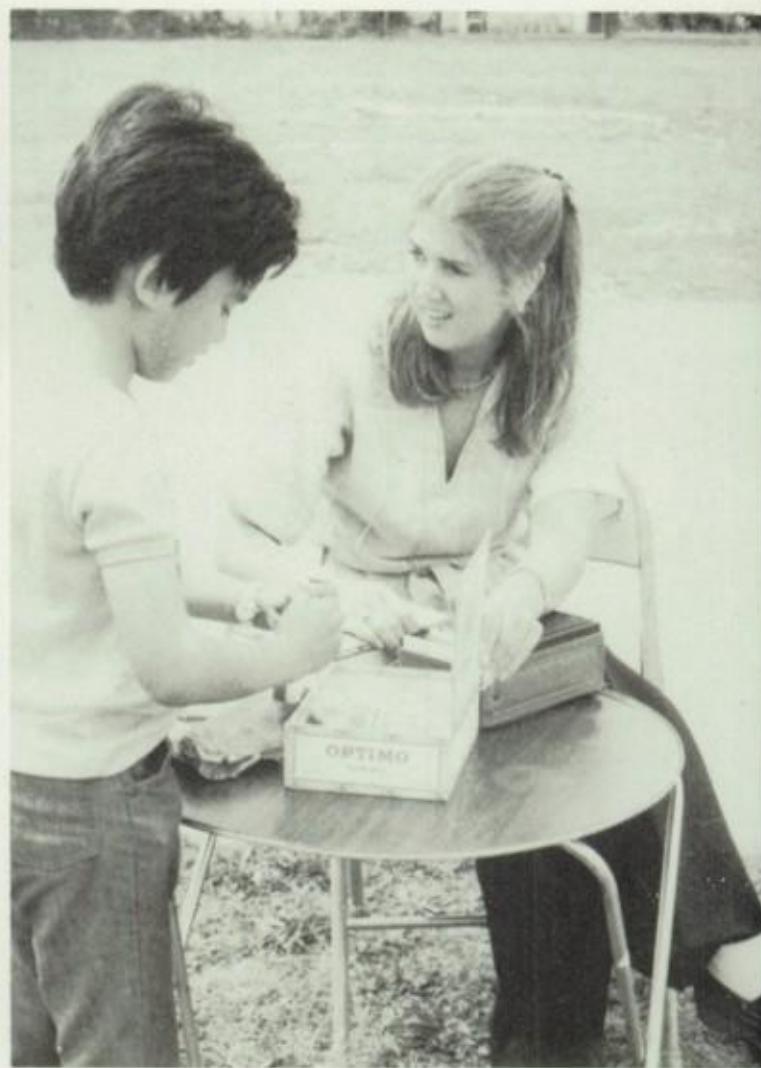

"She sure isn't an artist!"

"This plant will make a perfect gift."

Raggedy Ann and Andy wait patiently to be purchased.

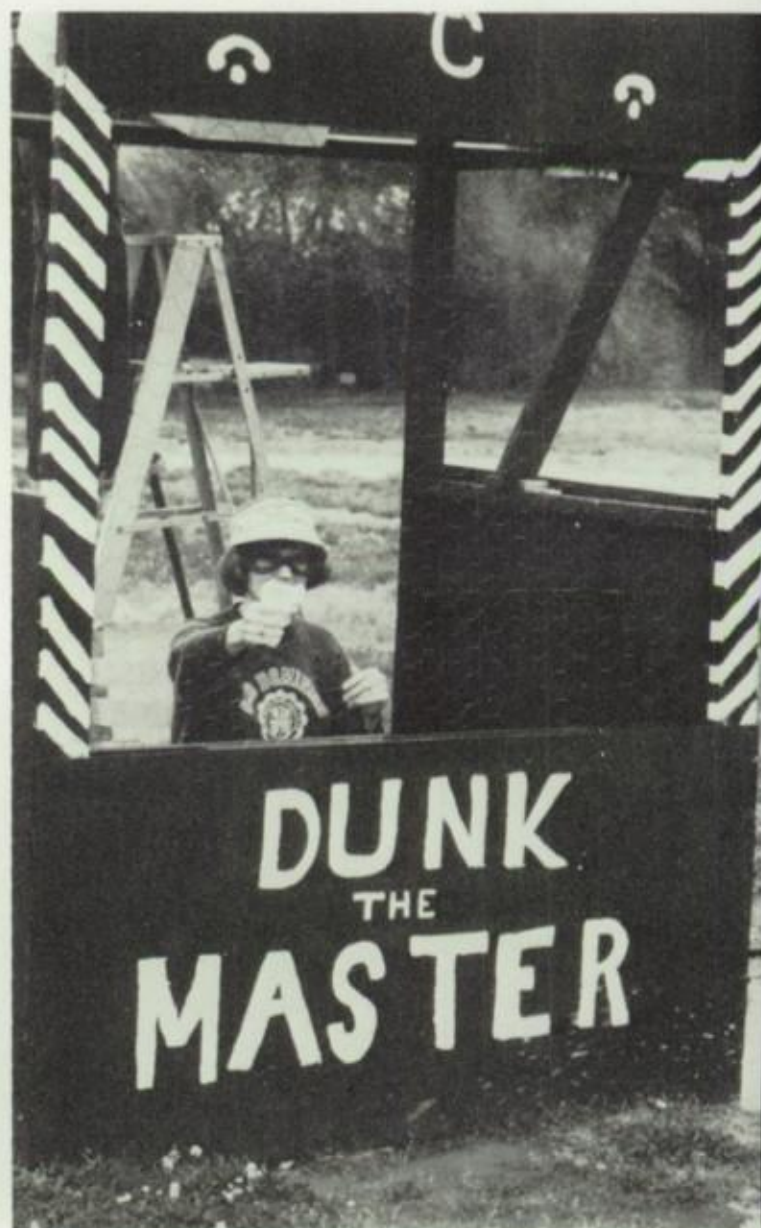

Susan Howerin takes the money for the spook house.

Beth Fennell tries to be a good salesman.

The moon walks were a success.

"If you throw that, I'll squirt you with my water gun."

SKI TRIP

This year the Junior-Senior Ski Trip was in Pennsylvania. The students visited Seven Springs, Hidden Valley, and Blue Knob. It was a very memorable and enjoyable trip for all.

Getting on the bus, Heading for the slopes.

R. D. isn't awake yet.

Elizabeth is ready to go.

"Sittin' high on a hillside takin' in all the growth
 Time to throw away my problems
 Cuz I made em up myself
 So I took all those worries, put em up on a shelf
 And headed on down to the sea shore
 Clouds slowly passin as I walked on the sand
 I picked up a seashell and I made up my plan
 I could feel the spirit of life in my hand
 as I reached my destiny
 Whoa ho ho ho oh oh oh whoa
 I feel free
 whoa ho ho ho oh oh oh Whoa
 Where I can have my own space
 I walked on the beach in the early morn
 I ran on the sand till I could breathe no more
 I stood on a rock looking out at the sea and believed what I said when I said
 I feel free
 Whoa ho ho ho oh oh oh whoa
 Where I can have my own space"

To all of the fantastic people who made this yearbook possible, which means everyone:

I don't know where to begin or what to say. I will never be able to thank you enough for all that you have done. This yearbook was not put together by a staff of ten, but by all of you. Each one of you holds a special place in this book, and I hope that you enjoy it.

There are so many people to thank. I must begin with Jeff Waters of Taylor Publishing Company. It was he who thought of the BOOK OF DREAMS. His idea was transformed into a beautiful cover by a special friend, Anne Whitley. Her artistic talent is extraordinary, and I believe that because of her hard work, the yearbook will mean a lot more to us.

I appreciate the help that Mr. Preston Mangum, manager of the Norfolk International Airport, and United Airlines gave to us. Without them, we would not have had such good photography throughout this book. A great big THANK YOU goes to Capitol Records for their permission in allowing us to use the theme, BOOK OF DREAMS.

Danny DeFalco, also from Taylor, is our main man. He always came to relieve my pressure and to reassure me. His warm smile inspired our staff and helped ease those "deadline panics."

Our staff was fantastic this year. At the top of the list we had our head peons, Mallory Stark and Laurie Aron. Our newcomers were Beckie Stone and Patty Kambitsis. They were all hardworking and as you can see they did a heck of a job.

Photographers, David Carter, Robbie Capel, Suzanne Kroskin and my fellow senior, Peter Maroulis, worked fantastically on this yearbook. They struggled constantly through my screams and threats. I apologize to them, and I hope that they understand.

It seems to me that I forgot someone. Oh yes, Petock!. . . I mean Amy. Well, Amy is a little hard to explain. There is no one like her in the whole world. We had a lot of good times doing this book. She could always keep my mind off panicking by telling me her problems. Wow! She is a terrific girl and a close friend and I thank you, Amy, from the bottom of my heart.

There were three people that helped on emergencies. Tim Dorsey helped in taking "last minute" pictures. Two super friends, Elizabeth Ritter and Franklin Hudgins came through on typing and captions. If there are any errors or complaints, go to them.

There was one person that I could always count on, even though I had to remind him to do so. He is Mr. Wirt. A fantastic sponsor with a mind full of helpful ideas. Without him, this book would have been a disaster. (Remember, any disaster will be blamed on him.)

My final paragraph is dedicated to a group of seventy-two people who hold a very special place in my heart. To them I must apologize for my behavior this past year. I know that it was unbearable, but you must realize what a big responsibility this book was to me. I realize that I should not have let my headaches and the pressure get to me, but it did, and I'm truly sorry. All of my love goes out to you, the Seniors of 1979 and to all of the administration and students. You were there when I needed you, and I appreciate it. In return, I give you this BOOK OF DREAMS, in hope that all of your dreams will come true.

Much love to all,

Caprice Everton

THE SEVENTY-NINERS

Martha Capshaw
Nov. 3, 1978

The class of '79 is a mighty one, indeed,
Beginning, of course, with ANNE TAYLOR at the lead
Then there's MARK WILLIAMSON running close behind
And CATHY, the treasurer, with money on her mind
JULIE LEHEW is always ready with pen in hand
And EILEEN has come to us from a different land
There's MARK ANSELL who's another Howard Cosell
And CAROLE is attentive through every bell
CAPRICE is editor of the yearbook
And MIKE is the one with that flirty look
ELIZABETH RITTER is the latest fashion designer
And HARRY is a mathematician that comes no finer
ANN AVERY is known for her party on New Year's Eve
When all of us Seniors refused to leave
TOM is the scholar of the class
And KEN has the formula for finding any mass
FRANKLIN has the latest prep clothes for men
And there's MARY who is a saint without a sin
CARTER has talent when it comes to sports
And STEVE is something on those tennis courts
PETER is the one who takes all of the pictures
And BARBARA is known for her E.R.A. lectures
SUNSHINE was voted "most likely to succeed"
While T. is head of doing good deeds
MARC CARRAWAY is tops when it comes to basketball
And there's DOUG SMITH who is so very tall
ELIZABETH ETHERIDGE is up on her foreign affairs
And WENDY is known for her long silky hair
GREG can win practically any debate
And JEANNIE is always the one that's late
BETH and PIERRE are the ones with the looks
And TODD will be author of future books
ROBERT is crazy behind the wheel
And our wrestler, BRAD, has suffered many a meal
BROOKS is the one with all of the tricks
And FUTTERMAN is the name that belongs to RICK
PHILIP is the one that's always in the surf
And JEFF WHEDBEE has the farm with all of the turf
LUCY is as funny as any clown
And, BARBARA MILLER, the swimmer will save you if you drown
LISA is the one that goes on all of the trips
And maybe R.D. will soon "get a grip"
WALTER MOORE is every girl's dream
And GORDON is the one who just smiles and beams
CINDY has the friendly look on her face
And when it comes to talking, DEBBIE HOLZSWEIG wins the race
SCOTT has been noted for his writing skill
And GEORGIA, certainly is not out to kill
ANNE MARSHALL supports all of the teams
And AMY sees yearbooks in her dreams
You can find MATT with a soccer ball
And FRANK'S loud voice carries down the hall
JANIE is quiet most of the time
And WOOD is endowed with a very bright mind
You can usually find JOHN WEIGLE running
And SUSAN MOSS is the one that's cunning
SUSAN CROWDER skipped up to our class
And GARY doesn't have to crack a book to pass
JEFF GIVEN is often found on the golf course
And TOLES excels at riding his horse
DANA is known for taking life in stride
And TERESA comes everyday from the Va. Beach ride
RUSTY has suffered a lot of teasin'
And CHRIS is noted for his scientific reason
KATHERINE JONES keeps us straight with all her facts
And LES has everything quite in tact
LORI and DEBBIE have left for higher studies
While we Seniors have remained the best of buddies
LARRY MICHAELS and JEFF LAIBSTAIN write for the paper now
And MISSY'S back with her Italian know-how
KRISTEN is the one who likes to draw
And this comes from the pen of MARTHA CAPSHAW.
